KINGSTONS, PATRICK ST., LIMERICK

MR. THOMAS KINGSTON, of Tipperary, has purchased the Gent's and Boys' Outfitting Business at 25 Patrick Street. This well-known establishment was owned by Lindsay Bros. Ltd. and an extensive trade was enjoyed by them in the premises for over half a century.

The well-known and highly progressive firm of Kingstons of Tipperary have taken over Lindsay's of Patrick St. and the business will be managed by Mr. Samuel Kingstons, a son of the proprietor. Mr. Kingstons has been trained for the outfitting business and under his supervision, service of a high order is guaranteed.

Patrick Street is certainly making the headlines in recent years and the fact that yet another keen business man is coming into the street has given yet another indication of its decisive trade potentialities.

The staff of Messrs. Lindsay Bros. have been retained and the "Kingston" policy of "good quality articles at a fair price" will be introduced to Limerick.

Indeed, made-to-measure suits have always been a line specially catered for by Lindsay Bros. and the new proprietor is ensuring that good quality materials will always be the motto.

The public are assured of varied selection in all lines as Mr. Kingstons is now adding considerably to the existing stocks.

Incidentally, Mr. Kingstons has an extensive boot and shoe business in Tipperary Town and intends to continue that business.

Mr. Thomas Kingstons (centre) is seen here with his son, Samuel (fourth from left), and staff.

SHANNOWEAR

We have had the privilege of supplying Messrs. Lindsay's for many years. We welcome Mr. Kingstons to Limerick, and wish him every success in the future.
