A proud legacy: the O'Neills of Newcastle West celebrate 100 years in business

TIMOTHY O'Neill of Monagea and Newcastle West

(1875-1961) first opened his shop for business on October 10, 1910 - the 10th day of the 10th month, 1910.

Timothy was born in Monagea in 1875 where the O'Neills had lived in the townland of Rahanagh for generations. By 1901 Timothy had left his mother, five siblings and his old uncle William at home heading to Limerick to find work.

He came to Newcastle in July 1907 having worked in Kinsale and elsewhere gaining experience which was to stand him in good stead. Four months after starting his own business he married Limerick woman Mary Anne Benson and they lived over the shop, rented from Michael Duffy in Maiden Street. They had two children; a son, Owen (born in 1914) and a daughter, Mary (born in 1916). October
