ONE OF THE most modern shopping complexes in these islands is the Crescent Shopping Centre in Dooradoyle, Limerick. Here, under one roof, are assembled some of the best businessmen in Ireland . . . with superb shopping facilities . . . and all eager to please.

The Crescent Shopping Centre in Dooradoyle has become in a very short time the focal centre of shopping in suburban Limerick. Here under one vast roof are some of the leading business concerns in Ireland . . . and some of the most helpful staff that one could ever hope to find.

In fact, it is this friendly atmosphere . . . from the staff and management and owners that has made this magnificent shopping complex a very popular one with housewives, families and, of course, the man of the house.

The huge car park area which has its own petrol station is an attraction in itself, particularly now as it is possible to get 4p off each gallon of petrol purchased, and it should be pointed out that one can drive to within yards of any one of the four main entrances, or malls, as they are known.

The focal point of the shopping complex is the fountain area, which has been used for exhibitions, a mini-circus, an amusement arcade and a car showroom, to name a few of the many roles it has played in recent years.

But it is the accessibility of the shops, the complete absence of traffic and, of course, the protection from the weather, that make this complex so attractive to all who patronise it.

Staffs working in this relaxed atmosphere give of their best with helpful advice to the shopper, while the splendid window displays in each of the shops catch the eye at once. Background music also relaxes one and the whole layout transports you into a new world.

A visit by Limerick people to Limerick's first ever enclosed shopping centre is a must. Shopping centres are now an accepted part of everyday shopping in many large towns and cities throughout the country, but it certainly would be hard to find one on a par with the one situated here in Dooradoyle.

Remember, no matter what type of goods one is looking for, they can be found here at Limerick's very own shopping centre at Dooradoyle.

The centre is now open just over two years—has become a very popular shopping place not only for the people of Limerick city and county, but for people from as far away as Kerry and Cork who avail of the excellent quality, value and the very keen prices that are available in the centre.

It should be noted that the Crescent Shopping Centre will be open on Good Friday from 9.30 a.m.-1 p.m. and 3 p.m.-9.30 p.m.

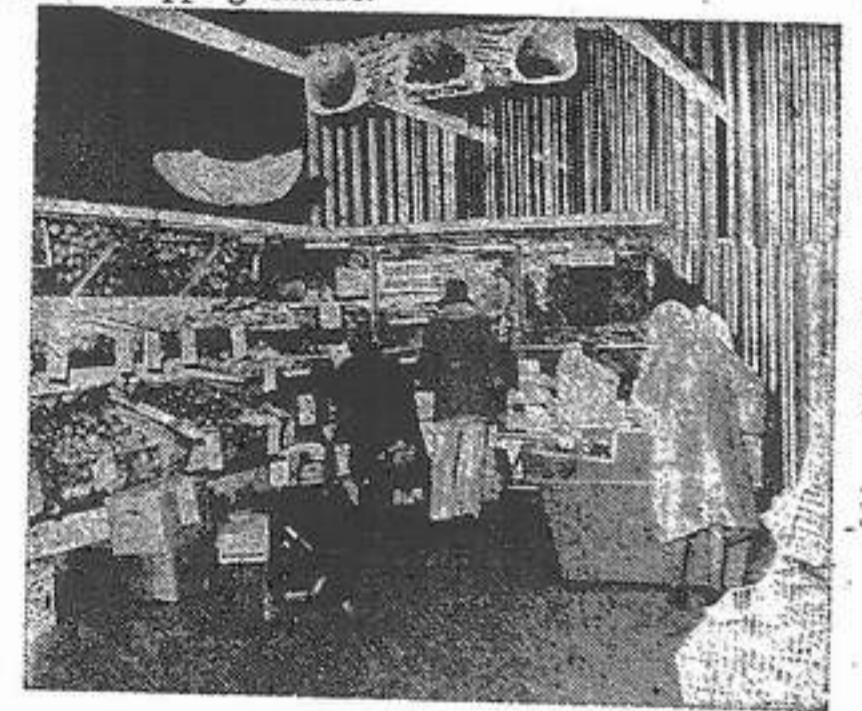

Free transport will also be provided to and from the shopping centre on Good Friday from the following areas at 2.45 p.m., returning same evening at 8 p.m.—Newcastle West, Charleville, Foynes, Ennis, Scariff and Tipperary Town.
