

HALPINS TEA COMPANY

LIMERICK

PROUDLY INTRODUCE MR. T EA

The Mr. TEA mystery campaign has created great interest and enthusiasm about his identity, his product and the Company he works for. Replies to the box number exceeded 3,000 in the short space of time in which the Campaign was run. Photographed below are two lucky housewives who realised the correct association of MR. T. as MR. TEA and Halpin's Tea Company. The REWARD of £50 was divided equally between them.

MRS. M. MURPHY, 40 Knockalisheen Road, Ballynantybeg, won £25 in the MR. TEA Mystery Campaign. Mrs. Murphy is being congratulated by Mr. Louis Neville.

MRS. M. KINGSTON, 1 Beechwood Drive, Greystones, won £25 in the MR. TEA Mystery Campaign. Mrs. Kingston is being congratulated by Mr. Louis Neville.

GIFTS GALORE FROM HALPINS MR. T

HALPIN'S MR. TEA will be calling to houses in Limerick City distributing valuable gifts to housewives who have Halpin's tea and sugar packets.

HOUSEWIVES, do not be disappointed when Halpin's MR. TEA calls, have your Halpin's tea and sugar packets ready, and claim your gift.

To qualify for a gift when Halpin's MR. TEA calls, you must have any of Halpin's tea packets (SPECIAL, GOLDEN AMBER, WILLOW, RED, ORANGE, PINK) AND a Halpin's Sugar Packet.

MR. LOUIS NEVILLE, 6 Grennan Villas, St. Joseph Street, has been appointed City Sales Representative for Halpin's Tea Company. Mr. Neville will act as Halpin's MR. TEA during the gifts galore from Halpin's MR. TEA Campaign.
