

Pictured at the Youth Service fashion show in 1978 were Breda O'Gorman, Valerie Sweeney, Josephine O'Sullivan, and Clodagh Ellison

Window shopping: Something was attracting this dog to CJ O'Connor's Spar shop on Henry Street in 1970. It was hardly the sign advertising Little Chip marmalade for two shillings ... perhaps it liked the look of the Easter eggs!

These two young ladies were pictured at the Jim O'Farrell art exhibition at Cummins galleries in 1978. Do you recognise them? Thirty-five years later, Jim Farrell's work can be found in many a Limerick location

Pictured at the Jim O'Farrell art exhibition at Cummins galleries were Martin O'Farrell, father of the well known local artist, with May Ridd, Shelbourne Road, Frances Condell, Westfields, Corbally and Jim O'Farrell, artist
