For distinctive styles in Menswear & Boyswear

In the past four years the premises of Mr. Joe Walsh, 69 Catherine St., Limerick, have become a household name for the quality of goods on offer, and for courteous and efficient service. Popular and experienced outfitter to gents and boys, Joe Walsh, who for many years was buyer/manager of Kingstons, 25 Patrick Street, before opening his own premises four years ago, has built up a steady trade, a striking tribute to his likeable personality and to his vast experience of all aspects of the trade. His spacious and well-stocked premises carries one of the largest stocks of gent's and boys' ready-to-wear and made-to-measure suits in the province, and this year he is again offering special value in boys' Communion and Confirmation outfits. And remember overcoats, shirts, socks, ties, underwear, mod gear, jeans, etc., etc.—in all the leading brands—and at keenest prices—are yours for the asking.

May we join with the many advertisers in this advertising feature in wishing continued success to Joe Walsh.
