

audience.

This marks the 125th anniversary of the Limerick Leader. Only by looking back to our past can we gain perspective on the political and social issues of today. From history we try to do better than the mistakes of the past, and seek what we may have lost.

As we look back we ask what it means to move forward. From Limerick with Love will throw up questions like that, but it will also be a satisfying experience in its own right.

Limerick School of Art and Design student Aileen Nix's response to the Michael Hartnett picture incorporates sc ove picture by Limerick avin O'Shea

ential elements of the m Limerick with Love ject. The exhibition is ng staged at Shannon port, which as a public ice makes different

Rene Cusack's fish store in 1973: Workers at Rene Cusack's Fish Store, Limerick's oldest and best known seafood suppliers, cleaning up that day's catch bridge 1972

Holding a whip in one hand: One your Limerick show in 1971

You work the pedals, I'll do the ste at Limerick Horse Show, Greenpa senting

who was Houlihan

Ten Knights
mother
d Caroline

Young talent getting a break on the airwaves in the summer of 1978. Big L was one of Limerick's biggest radio stations for years. It broadcast on 194MW and 92.1FM from studios in Ellen Street

Well partner: The Leader was there when for an old folks' trip to Spanish Point in 1978 ... and so was this happy chap

No car alarm? No problem. This the Limerick Show in 1971

EX: LIMERICK LEADER (LEADER 2)

8TH MARCH 2014 PAGE 3