FUNERAL OF MRS. WM. SHUEL, CAHERCIVEEN.

We regret to announce the death of the above highly-esteemed lady, which took place on Friday, 24th ult., at the residence of her husband, deeply regretted by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Deceased lady enjoyed excellent health up to a few days of her death. Her son, Mr. James Shuel, was at one time Secretary of the Literary Class of the Limerick Protestant Young Men's Association, and for many years past has been a successful solicitor in his native town, Caherciveen. Mrs.
Shuel was also mother of M. s. J. H. Thompson, Eagle Lodge, Limerick.

Deceased was a most amiable lady. Towards the poor of the town she was most generous.
Many a sob and many a fervent prayer were heard from the poor people, whose kind benefactress she was, as the funeral wended its way towards the family burying ground at Killovar-nogue. As the coffin was borne into the church the choir sang the hymn "Lead, Kindly Light," which was followed by the usual burial service.
The congregation then sang the hymn "Nearer,
my God, to Thee," and the ceremony concluded with a touching address by the Rev. Canon O'Halloran.

The wreaths sent in were inscribed as follows—
"From Annie and Dote to our darling mother,"
"From Harrie and Phil, with fondest love to our dear grandmother" "From Marshall and mother, with loving sympathy," "From Jim and Isabella, with fond regrets," "From R. B.
Halloran, with sincerest sympathy," "From Jack and Minnie, with fond regrets," "From Ned and Margaret to our darling mother."

The chief mourners were—Mr. William Shuel (husband), Mr. James Shuel, solicitor (son), and Mrs. J. Shuel (daughter-in-law), Misses Dote Shuel and Anne Shuel (daughters), Mrs.
Thompson (daughter) and Mr. Thompson, Mrs.
and Mr. J. Neill, Mrs. and Mr. E. West, Frank Giles (brother) and Misses Giles (granddaughters), Mr. F. Giles, Mrs. A. Giles.

The funeral was very large and representative.

Amongst the general public present were—
Rev. Canon Halloran, Rector, Rev. M. McCarthy, C.C.; Messrs. E. Fitzgerald, J.P., M.C.C.; Thos.
McDonogh Mahony, M.C.C.; R. Power, J.P.,

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

In the House of Commons last night,
Mr. Long declined to inquire from Sir Horace in; each boat; saw them take five six draws. This would be between twelve one o'clock in the morning. They came the "cut," and he got Myers to sirkie light; the men were then three or four away from him; he charged them with fishing; they made no remark, but paddled

He saw them getting a salmon.

Patrick Myers gave similar evidence.
One of the defendants denied that they
at the place mentioned.

Mr Counihan handed in a copy of the "D Gazette" showing that the close season for s was from the 1st August to the 11th Feb in each year.

The majority of the Court fined the defen £4 each and costs.

Patrick M'Namara, James M'Namara, Joe Clancy, and Michael Clancy were sum at the suit of Mr Hosford for a like offen Mountshannon on the same day—1st Febr

Michael Mackey proved that on the occ in question there was a second crew, comp the defendants, fishing, in addition to those cerned in the last case.

Patrick Kirby deposed that one of the d dants was playing cards in his house or night previous the 31st January—up quarter or half-past twelve o'clock.

In answer to Mr. Counihan, he said he di know that the party was convicted at Do for fishing at Quinpool on that morning (1 February). The man's father was dead, a defendant told him he need not attend court under the circumstances.

One of the defendants—We were conv
for this night already.

Mr. Counihan said that after committing offence at Mountshannon they pulled away place called Quinpool, and commenced fi again, and they were brought up at Clo Petty Sessions and convicted there.

Water bailiff Keyes said that when h them fishing at Quinpool it would be after a.m.

Mr. Hickson—Would you not call this a tinuous offence?

Mr Counihan maintained that it was not
was in the county of Limerick and the oth
the county of Clare, and the defendants caught by different people.

Having consulted, Mr. Hickson said the magistrates looked it as a continuous offence and dismissed the CUTTING TIMBER.

William Goggin summoned Martin M'M
for cutting branches of trees on his farm o 18th March. Complainant said he had four defendant doing so several times, but he di wish to press the case.

Defendant was cautioned.
Patrick Keogh was summoned by the complainant for cutting three young elm on the 4th March. Mr. Goggin said he va the trees as shelter.

Mr. Moran, for the defence, said his c denied having cut the trees.

The Court imposed a fine of 10s and 2s c
The Court adjourned.
