Limerick Hurlers Overwhelm Galway And Retain Rosc Cup

LIMERICK senior hurlers retained the Rosc Cup for the third year in succession when they overwhelmed a poor Galway side at the Gaelic Grounds on Sunday evening by 7-7 to 1-5. The standard of the game fell championship.

Devils Brew Assen, Rude Awak for a sa sub.

The defence was not really tested, and deeth easily enough with all the attacks that came their way. However, before at true assessment can be made of their real worth, the oppositions would most certainly have to be stronger than that of Galway on Sunday. Best in this sector were Jack Entight, John McGrath, the Qualds, and Jim Keogh.

Galway never once sparkled. The County is not strong in hurling material at the moment and they cannot be fancied to cause upsets in the Minster campaign this year. They were best served by Jimmy Dusgan, Tom O'Toole, Tim Sweeney, F. J. Lally, P. J. Law less and Jimmy Conway.

In defence, J. Enright, J. Quald and J. Keogh were sound, without being hrilliant. The pick of the forwards were L. Moloney, E. Ryan and F. Harnett.

For Galway, N. Detven, J. Moclair and F. Harnett.
