Catholic Institute ..... 6
 Belvedere ..... nil

Munster interprovincial, Marie Crawford, made a great start to the new season when she scored three of the goals for Catholic Institute in their big Munster senior league win over Belvedere at Rosbrien on Saturday.

Mrs. Noreen Lynch, Mrs. Sara Devane, from a penalty flick, and Mrs. Denise O'Shea were the other scorers for the winners who had former international, Mrs. Hilary Madden, back on duty in goal. Mrs. Julie Barkman and international Marie Bartlett also did well for Institute.

Belvedere had hard triers in Freda Noonan, Liz Harrington, Judith Murphy and Helen Woods.

Catholic Institute — H. Madden, J. Barkman, J. O'Flynn, S. Devane, M. Bartlett, M. O'Connor, D. O'Shea, A. Jackson, N. Lynch, M. Crawford and A. Condon.

Belvedere — D. Hodgkinson, M. Hayes, L. Harrington, F. Noonan, M. O'Neill, J. Murphy, M. O'Loughlin, U. O'Sullivan, M. Egar, H. Woods, M. Carroll.

Lansdowne go down

Lansdowne ..... nil
 Harlequins ..... 2

Two goals in the opening half by centre forward Alleen Foley, the second just before the interval, gave Harlequins both points from this entertaining league game on the all-weather pitch at Galvone.

Harlequins did a lot of pressing in the second half but they could not further penetrate a sound Lansdowne defence.

Sylvia Harding was a reliable goalkeeper for Lansdowne and Kathleen McMonagle, Kay Coughlan and Deirdre Carmody

TWO-GOAL DUGGAN ANSWERS BACK

BY JOHN O'SHAUGHNESSY

LIMERICK, 2; SHELBORNE, 0.

WHEN PREVIEWING this Bass League match in the weekend edition of the "Leader," I referred to the absence of last season's pin-up boy, Gerry Duggan, from the scoresheet this term. Well, my good friend from Garryowen must have taken my comments to heart, for he answered back in great style with two spectacular goals against the hitherto high-scoring Shelbourne in an always entertaining game at the Markets Field yesterday.

This was the blues third successive win, and what a tonic start to their 26-match league programme. Their next outing in the competition will be against the Al Finucane led Waterford at Kilcohan Park, and they have a date with the same opposition, at the same venue, in the semi-finals of the pass to winger George Quinlivan, who only a minute earlier showed his lack of experience when shooting too hastily after good lead-up work by Duggan.

But this time our George was equal to the occasion. He gleefully accepted O'Mahony's through ball and, without batting an eyelid, he set up Duggan in his early days yet to pass judgement on this Limerick side; neither can one ignore their last three results, but indications are that things are brightening up somewhat from last season.

Limerick — Fitzpatrick: O'Mahony (M.), Lymer, Nolan, Fitzgerald, O'Mahony (J.), Quinlivan, Duggan, Kennedy, Ryan, Grey, Sub., Irwin for Grey (75 mins.).

Shelbourne—Byrne, Gannon, Gregg, Mangan, Dunning, Mulhall, Hannon, Doyle, Lawlor, Dardis, McKenna. Sub., Cervi for McKenna (46th min.).

Referee N. Breen (Waterford).
