

to
er?

effort near the end and er who would be quick se on any problems that the others.

ng

g up I think that Count win a tremendous battle end from The Stranger his pair, and Supreme be the ones to be the nders. On the basis that e beat The Stranger last n though it was only by th I think that he may do is time in what promises f the most exciting Leger ome years it may be as n 1979 when Airmount
red by a head which was rdict in 1978 when Rhu nner of the first prize of Supreme Tiger (Trap 1), Smithwick's Irish St. Leger finalist at Limerick track on Saturday night next pictured with handler David Stanbridge.

aturday
og Card

525 yards—Conlo Boy, Dew, Emperors Cut, rie, Signal Flash, Apra—Count (res.), Wonder Res.).

00 yards final—Tip Top, Cronins Bar, Fiontra, alentine Jet, Hes Smart, Bike.

00 yards final—Budhas, od Bet, Blondie Brown, Jiddy, Romany Belle, lini.

tion St. Leger final—Dig, llerboy Hill, Ramtogue, ame Ball, Here Comes, erdraught Pet, Gracious, thys Fugitive (Res.). 25 yards—Michigan Man, lia, Dunahasbug Sean, Mick, Cathys Fugitive, Joyful Man (Res.). Nice Res.).

it, Leger 550 yards—Tiger, Back Garden, Flickory, Mr. Bogart, e, The Stranger.

pen Puppy 525 yards—oast, Yellow Panther, Knight, Lord Fanstown, r, Ahaveen Supreme. 3itch final 525 yards—e Slave, Slim Way, A La Aclanic, So Hasty, Lady 25 yards final—Cu Mair-is Man, Mounagour, allintubber Boy, Claires, iscar Rocky.

erick greyhound

Mr. Bogart (Trap 4), Smithwick's Irish St. Leger finalist at Limerick track on Saturday night next pictured with handler Mr. P. Bourke.

Senior Soccer: No team announced as . . .

United take on Waterford

By CORMAC LIDDY

THE Limerick soccer public are being expected to pay their money and take their chances, so it seems, when Waterford come to the Markets Field on Sunday to play a still disorganised Limerick United who were to have a press conference on Thursday but which was cancelled.

So far no new manager has been named by United. Last Tuesday I was given the name of the manager in confidence. I will not break the confidence but I cannot understand why the public cannot be told the name of the man who is to run the club. but I cannot understand why the public cannot be told the name of the man who is to run the club.

No team has been named for Sunday's clash but I do know that several local players were approached in mid-week and asked to sign.

An official of one club claimed that up to six of his players had been approached

Whatever about the team, Limerick United will have a kit for Sunday. A full set of jerseys, shorts and socks was presented to the team this Friday by Gleeson Sports Scene, William Street. Said United chairman, Mr. John McNamara: "Whatever about anything else we will look the part on Sunday thanks to this very kind sponsorship." Pictured is Mr. McNamara receiving the kit from Mr. Steve Gleeson, jnr., a director of Gleeson Sports Scene.

LATEST

SOME new hope was given this Friday when Mr. Pat Grace of Limerick City said that he and the members of his club were willing to meet with Mr. McNamara and officials of Limerick United and Dr. Brendan Flynn, who claims he is a majority shareholder in Limerick United. It is hoped that a meeting can be held this Saturday and that a League of Ireland representative will be present.

The Professional Footballers Association decided at a meeting in Waterford on Thursday night to picket the Markets Field on Sunday. This decision puts Sunday's match very much in doubt, as it is unlikely that the Waterford players will pass the picket.

by United. While he would have no objection to his players getting their chance in League of Ireland football, this official, a highly respected one, was concerned that if all his club players who had been approached had actually signed then his club would have been virtually decimated.

The sporting public are now about fed up with the bizarre situation which has arisen following the High Court ruling which replaced City with United as members of the League.

Hopefully a side considerably better than that which faced Bohemians last Sunday will be produced this time.

A High Court hearing may be sought this Friday to determine the future of the City players who seem to be the principal victims in this sordid situation.

Nobody wants to knock anybody but there are very few people about who will go to a cinema and pay their money without knowing what film is to be shown and I find it hard to accept that some team could not have been announced by League.

After all the players who did duty last Sunday are clearly not up to League of Ireland standard. Surely it is in United's best interest to at least announce that the same motley crew will not again be paraded.

United can only do better, it would seem. After all a worse performance than that given against Bohemians could hardly be given.

The game starts at 3.30 p.m.

ATARI®  Leader

SPORTS STAR OF THE MONTH