

the only Munster athlete to win at College Park in, being much too good for scratchmen: Harry Orman—an Irish champion many times over—in the 3 s handicap, and yesterday at Ballyhooley, Co. Cork, on his tenth Irish title when scoring a run-away win. Nobel Johnston, St. Finbar's, Cork, and Willie Newman, street, in the 2 miles contest.

Limerick athletes collected their of firsts over the week-end is, indeed, pleasing to record local riders filled the first two in the City Wheelers 50 kilo- race at the North Circular yesterday afternoon. Eighteen- old Brian Kelly "photo- ed" ahead of his Limerick (Club colleague, Jim Mangan, was pipped on the line by half- el.

ly's win was full of merit. The tion included the holder, lan Brosnan, Castleisland, and Aherne (do.), who won three s of the recent Ras Tailteann who, at the end of the 1,000 , was second in general classifi- on.

was a 24-lap contest, and eight home Sean O'Connor (Tralee) eading by 100 yards. When he i ahead by 50 yards more, an and Kelly appeared to little chance of getting into fighting line. However, with laps to go, the local riders lying well up with O'Connor. the final dash, Mangan made irst break, but he was beaten e superior finishing burst of O'Connor was third eight hs back.

Castleisland won the team prize Limerick Road Club, Mallow and Tralee had threatened to Ger Doherty, the third Lime- rider home, just failed to in front of the third Castle- d man in a "field" of 20.

was an an uneventful week-end rish half-mile champion, P. J. livan (Regional A.C.). He was icapped out of his depth at ge Park on Saturday and did nish the course, and at Bally- y he also pulled up.

FOUR FIRSTS

sterday, at Lisvernane, Glen of low, Kilmallock's Pat McAuliffe easily the outstanding perfor- winning the 220, 440, 880 and jump events, and being second er Slattery (Herbertstown) in 100 yards race. Slattery, too, nguished himself, filling second e in the 220 and long jump and g third in the high jump.

other Herbertstown runner,

A NEW SIGNEE

Ewan Fenton, new half-back on the Limerick team.

crowd in his efforts to catch I whose B.S.A. was undoubted fastest thing on the course. Local riders were very in the picture, the most succ being Don Kelly (250 Dot), MacEoin (350 B.S.A.) and Murphy (250 James), but the gallant, undoubtedly, being Harrington (500 Ariel). Desp very short experience on th Ariel, Harrington set out giant-killing expedition calc to end in glory or disaster. glory there was, while the i ible Limerickman led the field for three laps of the National, and disaster was narrowly averted when the looped the loop at high spe the jump coming into the str It was Harrington's second tacular spill in one day, and both he walked away, shake smiling.

Many other riders fell off heat of battle, but, happil body was seriously hurt. I Buchanan, who travelled all th from Derry with his friend, J Whyte and a pair of 250 Gi had nothing to show for hi but a black eye. Both w down again for the next Dale scramble on September 4th.

Results in Brief.

"Slow" Graded Scratch I 1, J. Thomas, Tullamore Greves); 2, A. Sheehy, Rhod Dot); 3, M. F. Murphy, Lir (147 James).

Medium-graded Scratch R: A. M. Prittie, Birr (324 Dot); Peat, Dublin (247 F.B.); 3, MacEoin, Limerick (348 B.S.)

Fast-Graded Scratch Race— E. Harris, Clondalkin (499 B 2, G. P. Scarlett, Dublin (246 3, J. K. Barkley, Dublin (246

General Handicap—1, Peat Kelly, Limerick (246 Dot); Dunne, Dublin (247 F.B.).

Grand National—1, Harr Scarlett; 3, Barkley.

LIMERICK'S LEADING BOXER TURNS PRO

LIMERICK'S leading a boxer, Christy Kelly, Francis, has turned sional and may have hi fight in paid ranks in th City Hall on Friday, S ber 16th.

Kelly, who was runner Peter Laverty for the Iris weight title two years ago, managed by Cork-based Mackin. Mr. Mackin says