

appearance of St. John's Temperance Society on the basketball scene. Members should now avail of the opportunity to learn the game, as there are nigh-perfect facilities for the game in the Pavilion.

SCOUT NOTES

Indoor Rally.

The annual indoor rally opened at St. Ita's Hall, Thomas Street, on Thursday, 9th inst., and continues for three nights to Saturday, 11th inst. The adjudicator is Rev. Father Moriarty, C.C.

Leaders' Conference.

The half-yearly conference of scout leaders takes place next Sunday, 12th inst., at St. Joseph's Scout Den, by kind permission. The conference opens at 3 p.m., at which the principal speaker will be the Very Rev. Dr. James Cowper, P.P., who will read a paper on "St. Patrick, The Leader." The conference will also study the contribution which the scout organisation should make to the centenary celebrations of St. Patrick. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament at St. Joseph's Church at 6 p.m. will close the official part of the programme.

Next Sunday an investiture ceremony of new scouts will be held at St. Joseph's Church at 6 p.m. and at Hartstonge Hall at 1 p.m.

St. Patrick's Day.

All troops will hold the usual morning church parades, after which shamrock will be blessed and distributed. Later the troops assemble to take part in the general public parade. As the times for the parade have not yet been received from the organisers, it is not possible to give the final arrangements, but, most probably, they will follow the pattern of previous years.

Moladh le Dia! Moladh go Deo Leis!

Scarteen (Black & Tan) point-to-point

The Scarteen Hunt point-to-point meeting to be held at Ballinacree, Emly, Co. Tipperary, next Wednesday, will be breaking with tradition. There is an entirely new course, about 2 miles from Emly on the Oola side, consisting of bush fences.

The Open Maiden Race of £50, plus four other races with one confined, should make for highly exciting sport. Big fields are expected at this popular fixture.

The principal event is sponsored by the Tipperary Livestock Agency Limited. Entries close with the honorary secretary, Mr. P. J. McCormack, this Friday afternoon.
