

Manor
Resort.
e of a host
s from the
t, business
ment who te in the

son. Despite a slow start to the campaign, the Roy Keane-managed side
secured promotion to the Premiership as Championship winners.
Other big names taking many of the world's top players to participate in the JP McManus Pro-Am event at Adare Manor in 2005 will also be taking part in tomorrow's event.

of Greenbrier Golf Club in the US and played regularly with club professional, Sam Snead. A long-time friend of Adare Manor Hotel and Golf Resort owner, Tom

underway on Thursday morning.

Harrington, who is ranked number 12 in the world, has his sights firmly fixed on claiming the title which would

includes defending
champion Thomas Björn of Denmark, former US Open Champion Michael Campbell of New Zealand, winner of this event in 2003.

er makes his clinical m

N CORR

Delaney officially re-located the Ger Hartmann International
Sports Injury Clinic
in a simultaneous collection at
the UL Arena
of Limerick. Internationally
renowned sports
physician Dr
Ronnie Delaney
has moved his clinic to the University of Limerick. A
number of
international
clinicians from around the world Street.
The Ger Hartmann
Collection -
a collection of
memorable
items
including
some of the great athletic achiev-
ers will now
be open to the public
at the University

over 500
countries
a multitude of athletics to
the GAA to rugby and cycling and

the collection number
of O'Sullivan
has become the woman to win the Champion's Medal in the women's category in the boots
of Fallon wore
the Dylan
story in the English Derby in the Irish presentation on that

large numbers of
at the
of O'Sul-
livan,
and Sean Og

Olympic gold medalist Dr Ronnie Delaney officially opening the Ger Hartmann International Sports Injury Clinic at the UL Arena alongside Professor Don Barry (President-Designate of the University of Limerick) and Ger Hartmann.