PRICE THREEPENCE

TWO OF THE FAMOUS LEAHY BROTHERS

The above photograph, taken in the early days of the present century, includes two of the famous six County Limerick athletic brothers—the Leahys of Cregane—who shed lustre not only on their native county, but on Ireland in general. In the picture are:—Standing (left to right)—Mr. Michael Madigan, of Rathkeale, himself an athlete of high merit in his day, and Con Leahy, the world-famous high jumper. Sitting (left to right)—Mr. M. F. Leahy, now resident in Mallow, the only survivor of the famous brothers, and himself a great all-round athlete, and Mr. William Sheahan, the veteran Gael who, like Mick Madigan, has all his life been ardently and usefully associated with the advancement of our national pastimes.

Board Of Works Silent About That Fairy Fort

THE National Monuments Section of the Board of Works has not yet disclosed the results, if any, of the excavations carried out six months ago on the ancient fort at Ballynantybeg.

The fort was excavated for the purpose of ascertaining if it could be classified as a "National Monument" worthy of preservation. But, as stated, the Board of Works is continuing to maintain residents of Moylish Crescent declare. "If Corporation Inspectors lived here they would know of the state of terror in which we live because of the rats."

CRASH INTO SARFIELD BRIDGE HAS SEQUEL

A CRASH into a portion of the parapet of Sarsfield Bridge, in which three ornamental supports were damaged, had a sequel at the City Court to-day, before Justice D. F. Gleeson, when Luke Carey, 7 Lock Quay, was prosecuted for dangerous driving on the night of the 10th August at 11.30. He was also charged with various offences
