his name on the scoring list, had a hand in all three goals, for it was he who sent over the crosses that led to them. His inside partner, Dillon, fitted in well, and on the other flank, McMahon had the satisfaction of getting a goal on his debut. Cowhie and Higgins, the Cork Celtic wing-halves, worked hard, especially in the second half, but they failed to achieve the same effective link-up with the inside forwards as their counterparts.
McCarthy and Casey had an impressive game with the latter fighting hard for the ninety minutes, and McCarthy, though appearing quiet on occasions, getting one of the goals to make his tally five for the season. This puts him in the position of leading goal-scorer for the side, quite an achievement for a wing-half.
With McCue between this pair, Limerick had a splendid half line and the pivot's work was reflected in the rest of the defence where Clinton and Crawford were excell-did goal. Number 3 for Limerick came a few minutes before the interval when Wallace again sent over and O'Reilly collected and sent a waist high shot on its way to the net.

Browne had a near miss for Cork Celtic during the second half when his header was narrowly wide.
Frank McCarthy brought Skelly into action later with a strong grounder, which the Limerick keeper saved well. Cork Celtic, who had Browne as leader for a time in this period, kept up the pressure but Limerick held on to their lead.

ford.
