WON OVER 380 PRIZES

Mick Martin, popular Limerick champion cyclist, who has now retired, won over three hundred and eighty prizes. Born near Cappamore, Mick first took part in active competition in 1939, and during his career won twenty-five county championships, five Munster titles and over three hundred and fifty other prizes. Being equally as good on the road, Mick won many road events. He was noted all over Ireland for his clean sportsmanship, and his absence from the county championships at Croom was missed by his many admirers.
