PIKE'S GOOD WIN

PIKE ROVERS 4.
COBH RAMBLERS 1.
AT St. Colman's Park, Cobh, yesterday, Pike Rovers defeated the local Ramblers in the first round of the Intermediate Cup and this confirmed their League victory at the same venue some weeks past.

The Pike half-line laid the foundation for success, and Paddy Casey and Paul Croke were outstanding. Their defence was always in command and it was only in spasms that the homesters threatened. Eamonn O'Connor, in goal for the Limerick side, was in splendid form and was given
