

COURT SEQUEL
O "EXCUSE-ME"
DANCE INCIDENT

AN alleged early morning assault with a bottle, following a spate in the course of an "excuse-me" dance in a local dance hall, had sequel before Justice C. S. Kenny, L., at Glin Court on Wednesday.

DISPUTE OVER A GIRL

Evidence was given by Frank Orr that on the night of 12th November he attended a dance at the cal hall. Early in the night he saw a man named Banberry dancing an excuse-me dance with a girl.

AFTER THE DANCE

When the dance was over, witnesses as walking up to Church Street saw a man, whom he heard was seeing home when he heard two people walking behind him.

GONE TO ENGLAND

There was no response in Court when Kathleen O'Connor, the young lady who was with previous witness at the time of the alleged assault, was called as a witness.

VERBAL STATEMENT

When the Superintendent asked if he was entitled to cross-examine the witness regarding a verbal statement he made to the Guards, Mr. O'Connell objected on the ground that there was no evidence that Loughnane was hostile.

GALBALLY DRAMATIC SOCIETY

The Galbally Dramatic Society, the "Mooreabbey Players," staged the well known comedy, "Poor Jimmy," by P. G. O'Dea, in the Coursing Club Hall recently.

POULTRY DEVELOPMENT SCHEME

Subsidies on Chickens Distributed from Licensed Poultry Hatcheries.

WEST LIMERICK I.R.A. MEMORIAL

The collection for the above, held in Rathkeale, Croagh and Killynny parish, was one of the most successful held during the past 20 years.

OUT OF THE PAST

By ROBERT HERBERT

I UNDERSTAND that Della Murphy has sung her most famous "Come-all-ye" of all, "Three Lovely Lassies from Bannion," in three different languages, English, Latin and Italian.

THE GROVES OF BLARNEY

In the middle of the last century that eccentric genius, John Francis O'Mahony, alias Father Proulx, one of the most brilliant and original literateurs of all time, amused himself by composing mock originals in other languages.

"GARRYOWEN"

And this brings us to our own "National Song," "Garryowen." We all know, from the son, itself, the story of its rakish origin and of the wild Johnny Connell, the proprietor of the Garryowen Brewery, who finally fled to Cork, probably to escape his debtors.

Let Bacchus' sons be not dismayed

But join with me each jovial blade: Come hoose and sing, and hand your aid. To help me with the chorus to be rendered thus in concise Latin:

O Bacchadae impavidi, Adstis compotanti mi! Ut decat vos fortissimii, Ad pulchre concinendum.

THOMAS STANLEY TRACY, A.B.

The author was Thomas Stanley Tracey, Esq., A.B., Sch., T.C.D., and in the introduction to his history, Maurice Lenihan pays further tribute to this scholar in the words: "While in translation, research, revision and general literary assistance, I have enjoyed the constant efficient and friendly aid of Thomas Stanley (sic) Esq., A.B., ex-Schol., T.C.D., who was conveniently near me."

LENIHAN'S HISTORY

I have heard it stated that Tracy was a sort of broken-down scholar who acted as a sort of assistant editor to the "Limerick Reporter and Tipperary Vindicator."

MAURICE BIRCH

Lashed by the Bard of Thomond, Maurice Birch, Lenihan was a true newspaper man all his life; and like most of them, made little money from it.
