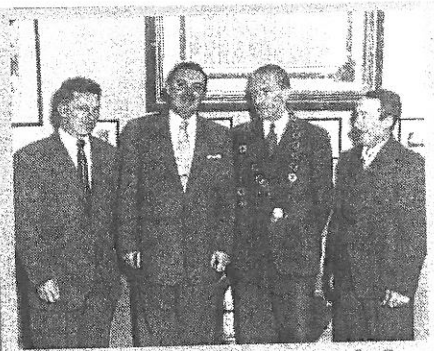
LIMERICK CHRONICLE

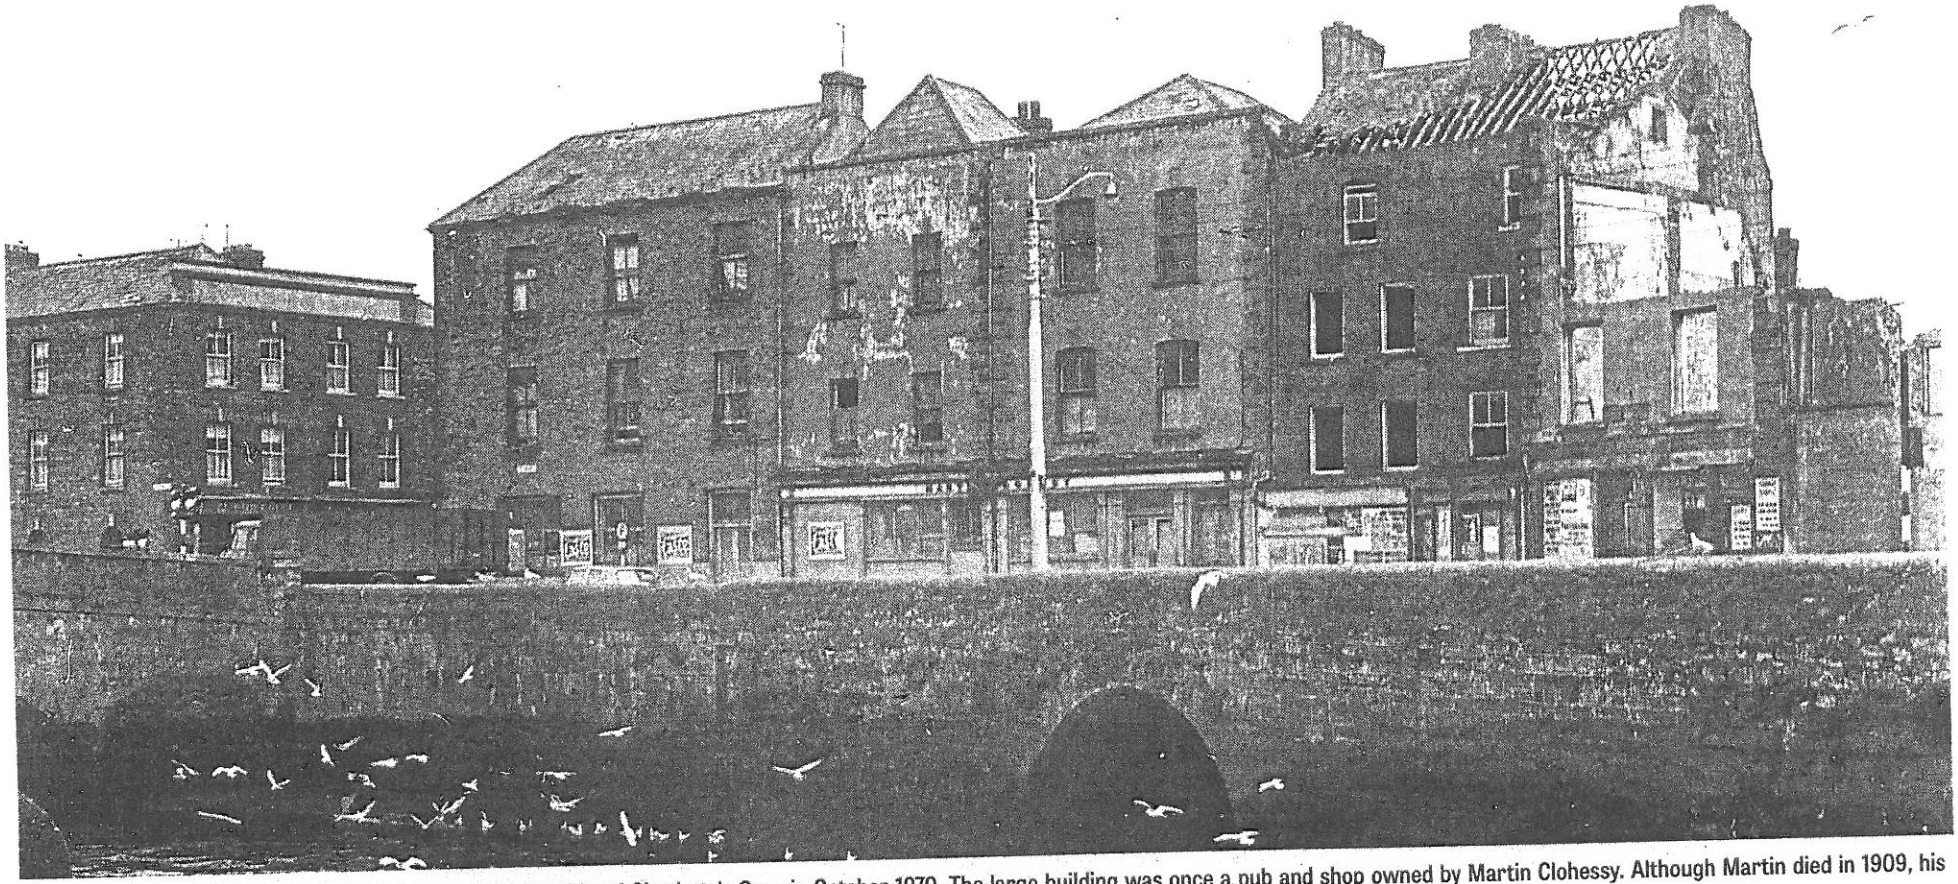
Celebrating 250 years - 1768 - 2018

DOWN MEMORY LANE WITH THE COUNTRY'S OLDEST TITLE



The curious case of the missing mayoral chain

ARCHIVE SPECIAL: PAGE 53



The Leader photographer captured this image of the dilapidated Charlotte's Quay in October 1970. The large building was once a pub and shop owned by Martin Clohessy. Although Martin died in 1909, his name was still above the door over sixty years later

Sails, seas and Europe's fate

EX: LIMERICK LEADER 8TH SEPTEMBER 2018 (L.C. INSET, L.2, P.51)