CORPORATION COMMITTEES.—A meeting of the Artizans Dwellings Committee was held in the Council Chamber, Town Hall, this afternoon, Alderman David Landera in the chair. The others present were—Town Councillors Donnelly, Kenna, Anglim, and McNainara. Mr Corbett, CE, Executive Sanitary Officer, and Mr A C Wallace, Town Clerk, were also in attendance. Mr Corbett announced that nine of the artizans cottages had been completed, and that the rent of the five in front should be 3s 6d a week, and the four at the rear 3s a week. This was agreed to. There were 42 applications to rent the five cottages in the front, and on a poll being taken five parties were selected as tenants. After some discussion it was resolved that they should give security for the rent, and enter into an agree- ment to keep the premises in proper condition. A meeting of the members of No 2 Committee was held subsequently, but no important business was transacted.

DEATH OF THE REV JAMES SULLIVAN.—We regret to announce the death of the Rev James Sullivan, formerly rector of Askeaton, in this county. Mr Sullivan, on his resignation of Askeaton parish, owing to his advancing years, went with two of his daughters to live at St Albans, in Hertfordshire. For some time past he had been in failing health, and on Sunday, July the 22nd, he entered into rest. The funeral took place on Thursday, July 22nd, at the ancient church of St Peter, at St Albans. The service was said by the Rev Ponsonby Sullivan, only son of the deceased. There were also present—Mrs Wm Ross-Lewin Lowe, Miss Florence Sul- livan, and Miss Georgina Sullivan, daughters ; Mr Wm Ross-Lewin Lowe, Mr Francis Lowe, Mr Dillor Lowe, &c. Mr Sullivan, who was educated at Trinity College, Dublin (B A, 1840), and Wells Theological College; was the only surviving son of the late Major James Sullivan, JP, of Chesterfield house, Newcastle, Co Lime- rick.

A ROMANTIC COUPLE—It is alleged that the little village of Balingarry has had an interesting bit of romance within the past few days, the gay inamorata being—rather prepossessing—a Miss Burns, and her suitor, a swain named Mackey. Miss Burns, who is in her 19th year, lived with her uncle, who, it would appear, exercised paternal watchfulness over her love-making propensities, but through all she helped to win the smiles of the fascinating Mackey, though he was nine years her senior. Love, it is said, laughs at locksmiths, and despite the uncle's vigilance the damsel escaped from her protector's roof early one morn- ing last week, and with her Romeo hid off to Limerick, thence departing for the fashionable
