

BISHOP SPEAKS EDUCATION

THE BISHOP of Limerick, Dr. Murphy, D.D., this week has criticised the slavish copying of educational systems from other countries.

He was speaking at the convention of the Association of Secondary Teachers which was held in Limerick.

Dr. Murphy said: "We should avail ourselves of what is valuable from the experience of other countries, but our educational system should continue to

Attending the HERN/D.L.W. floor covering seminar at Cruise's Hotel, from the left: Mr. A. McCloskey, Todds; Mr. J. O'Reilly, HERN Ltd.; Mr. J. D. Walsh, Roches Stores; Mr. J. Casey, Cannocks; Mr. T. Gough, Roches Stores; Mr. S. Gillen, Corbett's of Galway; and Mr. D. O'Regan, McCarthy's.

Mr. Richard Harris, the well-known Limerick-born film star, speaking at the University Campaign meeting which was held in O'Connell Street the other night.

be
we
of
tir
ter
se
go ne
th
be
Le
sc
m an ar
*
W
rit
he m se
wh
we
ge ne
an
sa
un
pr
th
m
fo
th
be
co
gi