SHOT FROM LORRY

BALLYNEETY MAN WOUNDED

While standing at the corner of Halpin's Hooped premises near Ballyneety, on yesterday evening, a number of men were fired at from a motor lorry carrying armed soldiers. As a consequence a man named Michael Ryan, of Ballyneety, an employe at Dromabuns creamery, was wounded in the arm, and is at present in the Limerick County Infirmary. The wound is not very serious.

POPULAR LIMERICK GAEL INJURED

Mr "Wille" Hough, Monegay, Newcastle West, whose collar-bone was injured on Sunday last during the progress of the hurling match between Limerick and Tipperary at Riverstown, Cork, is at present confined in the South Infirmary, Cork. From an inquiry made at the hospital on yesterday we learned that he is progressing favourably and will leave the hospital about Friday. His injury will prevent his appearance in the Munster Hurling Final on the 29th inst, which will be a loss to the Limerick team.
