After the Strike

For the first time for several months Limerick enjoys full industrial peace...

The news of the settlement of the dock strike on Wednesday...

responsibility for bringing about the cessation of the prolonged and tangled dispute.

The men resumed work yesterday morning, and business at the port...

It will take some little time, of course, to get in adequate supplies...

maintained heretofore through what we think we can profit a bright future for the commercial and industrial life of Limerick.

maintained heretofore through what we think we can profit a bright future for the commercial and industrial life of Limerick.
