AUG 15 14

Group of Irish Volunteers in training in Kilkee on August 15, 1914. They were organised in response to the formation of the Ulster Volunteers whose purpose was to oppose Home Rule for Ireland. The volunteer at left in back row (marked x and wearing hat) was Lieut. Patrick J. Magee of Castleconnell. He took part in the preparations for the 1916 Rising and others in the group might also have done so. Can anyone identify any of them? Most were probably from the Limerick area.
