

use fo... Talbo... e man... atten... the first... g illness... by the... tins. It... gloom... received... Medical... the re... ded, the... which to... ok place... her case... st alarm... of pain... till the... r was an... ssued:—... er 29... tinues to... umpton... , p. m... er Excel... er 29... place in... lletin... Charles Lam... ) in the... Lambert... n August... by whom... her ex... of Cavan... Dutton, of... mes, Lou... stand, wa... e accou-

The following are the Creditors of the Estate of the late John Griffin, Esq. who died this 14th day of December, 1841. The creditors consist in the Jail, before the Registrar at the Court, on Monday, the 14th of January, 1842.

MAN.
THION.
CROSY.
MAN.
MAN.
HARRY.

The following are the Creditors of the Estate of the late John Griffin, Esq. who died this 14th day of December, 1841. The creditors consist in the Jail, before the Registrar at the Court, on Monday, the 14th of January, 1842.

The following are the Creditors of the Estate of the late John Griffin, Esq. who died this 14th day of December, 1841. The creditors consist in the Jail, before the Registrar at the Court, on Monday, the 14th of January, 1842.

The following are the Creditors of the Estate of the late John Griffin, Esq. who died this 14th day of December, 1841. The creditors consist in the Jail, before the Registrar at the Court, on Monday, the 14th of January, 1842.

The following are the Creditors of the Estate of the late John Griffin, Esq. who died this 14th day of December, 1841. The creditors consist in the Jail, before the Registrar at the Court, on Monday, the 14th of January, 1842.

died at Jamaica in August and September, of the fever; nineteen Officers have fallen victims, and in one of their families seven out of nine have been consigned to their graves by this awful visitation.

A detachment of the 86th Regiment, under the orders of Captain Creagh, arrived here on Wednesday se'nnight. Their want of uniformity, we understand, is owing to the short notice they had to march, having recently landed, after twenty-four years absence in India, and the recruits who had joined, not having received the clothing from London.—Brighton Herald.

The entire regiment of the Grenadier Guards have arrived at Portsmouth. These troops, with detachments of the Second Royal Veteran Battalion, do the duty of the garrison. The Royal Marines take the dock-yard guards.

On Sunday night some persons broke into the house of Richard Rose, Esq. at Castlematrix in this County, and took thereout a gun and blunderbuss. Mr. Rose has offered 20 Guineas reward in this day's Chronicle for the apprehension of the robbers.—See Advertisement.

We have authority to mention that the statement relative to Mr. Lloyd of Mount Friscoe's wood-ranger being deprived of his musquet, is incorrect, no such circumstance having occurred, or even been attempted.

A Grand Fancy Ball, in aid of the nearly exhausted Mendicity Fund, Cork, is to take place on Thursday the 20th instant, at the Theatre, George's-street, in that City.

James Lane, Esq. is a candidate for the Treasurership of Cork, in the room of William Phillips, Esq. resigned in consequence of ill health.

The High Sheriff of the County Clare will hold a Court on Tuesday next for the trial of Replevins, at the Court House, Fennis.

On Thursday evening, about dusk, five or six marauders stopped two men of the names of Seanlan and Coffee on the road to Cashel, a small distance beyond Cleriman; they robbed Coffee of about £12 and beat him severely—but Seanlan escaped. The same party robbed some people of their market fare, which they were carrying home.

Last night, some villains got over the wall, by a ladder, into Mr. Nash's yard, in Newgate-lane, and from thence into an office, from which they took a quantity of salt beef, and Potatoes—they also broke into the Pottery yard adjoining, and destroyed some books in the office, but found nothing there worth taking off.

Wednesday morning, the widow Cullum, of St. George's Church, Mins-house, was found dead in her bed. The Mayor held an inquest on the body. Verdict—"Died by the visitation of God."

Thursday, twelve publicans were summoned before the Mayor of Cork, by Mr Sheriff White and High Constable Rogers, for having had their houses open on Sunday, during divine service.—They were severally convicted.

* * * In consequence of the much-lamented death of Her Excellency, the Countess Talbot, the Thespian Society have postponed their Performance of next Monday Evening, until further notice.

The Rev. W. D. Hoare has received from Mrs. Dartnell, 5s. for the wife of Sheehan, the labourer, who left...

LIMERICK SATURDAY, July 1.

The following high news from the London Morning Chronicle of Friday, the 1st ult. is vithout the slight foundation...

"SINGULAR FRAUD.—Tuesday last, a person was effected on the Eye Office at Limerick, who came into town, zig his horse as usual, and stating himself to be a general dealer in Patent... place of about five miles distance from Limerick, and between 30 and 40 hogheads of Tobacco, and for the goods, with the exception of the tax, for which an indulgence of eight days is granted. The goods were delivered from the sea, and conveyed via Ouz... person's town; no such person is believed of, although license was taken out and every regulation observed, the amount of duty thus evaded the amount of upwards of ten Thousand pounds. Ever since it has been resorted to, or discovered, courts of law have been without effect, nor can any penalty be inflicted.

To any person attending water-towers in which Revenue Bureaus are ordered in this country, the above story is a very ridiculous, that it would be scarcely worth stating, were it not to show how credulous the public are upon any marvelous tale.

The sale by auction of several orphans' hand Thales, recently... Shea. Dinovan, and T... pl... Wednesday at the Custom-House, in lots of about 7 bales each, of... The first... for 2d. per lb... otherwise... with an... No 2,