f surprise to many why some member of the Town Council that a lamp be placed in front as a boon to the people pasry street at night, and the taxequent the meetings in that om which darkness itself surthe care with which the Caafter the comfort of the people ns religious and public instituhigh is advantaged by ample erly so. No doubt the present Corporation only require to be asnre out equal justice to those rtion of the rates. The street ant the aid of the Surveyor to should be.

ruly, A PROTESTANT RATEPAYER.

e Protestant Hall was filled to pectable meeting. to witness the to the successful competitors, gnostic Society. Tea and abunstributed, after which the Rev. rard in due order the candidates. the prize awarded. Mr. Rogers Society then gave the Halleial request, was repeated. Several red, of a highly uneful character, men, and the party broke up, ional Anthem, greatly pleased. Villia has received for Protestant n English friends as follows:-£5 12s 6d.; Miss Ellen Enraght Townsend, 71. 10s; and from acon, 41, Galbally Association, Sadleir, 241. 18. Rathronan . William E. Massy 211. 15s 6d Orphan Hall, 51. from A. B. . from Rev. William Lewis, his 1. 11s collected by Mr Joseph F. Morony, and 12. by Mrs Thos.

nks acknowledges the receipt of mege, Esq. being his annual subfor the Orphans under Mr Franks annual appeals in behalf of the Wesleyan Society, will be made on, and half past six in the evespel, George-street, by the Rev. id collections lande worm each al tea meeting, which 18 ex = cously attended, taken place in on Monday evening, when adered by Rev. Mr. Applebe and an Church of Limerick has the isters one of whom (alternately) ircuit attached thereto—a district miles into the country, in which Chapels of Preaching Places, and nting regularly to several hundred are mostly of a Class, moral and ther unable to support the expenses out the aid of the Parent Church. offers a justification for this apof their own congregation as we!] cindness of other sections of the and when it is borne mind that odism has been purely unsectarian enemy of none, for one o hundred hat as on former occasions, so now eriptural Truth will bestow their Gloucestershire. At Headford, county Galway, Mr John Redington to Miss Anne Redington.

DEATHS.

On this day, at the residence of her husband, Laurel-hill, co. Tipperary, Bessy, the beloved wife of George Jackson. Esq., a lady whose life was characterized by the purest sentiments of Christian piety, and who died rejoicing in the Lord, her Saviour. Her unexpected demise has cast a sad gloom over the large circle of friends whom she had endeared by the sincerity of her disposition, the sweetness of her manners, and the affability that distinguished her social intercourse. A loving wife and a foud mother, she leaves an attached husband and seven affectionate children to mourn the loss of one, whose virtues shed a lustre on the household, of which she was the ornament and the pride.

On last evening, in the 25th year of his age, Thomas, son of G Morgan Goggin, Esq, of this city, deeply regretted by his family and friends.

On the 6th instant, at Tinerana, county Clare, after a long and painful illness. Lieut-Colonel George Scott, late 6th Bengal Cavalry, in the 53rd year of his age.

On the 3rd inst, at her husband's residence, Kilrush, Anne, wife of Dr Thomas O'Donnell, a lady who, in every relation of lsfe, was esteemed and respected for her amiable, mild, and charitable disposition. To her family and friends her loss is irreparable, while the poor have reason to lament a lady who was at all times devoted to their interests.

On the 5th instant, at Dromin, the residence of his brother, the Rey James Ryan, for 31 years parish priest of Bruree, Rockhill, and Coleman's-well, in this county.

At the Abbey, Tipperary, St George, son of the Rev Arthur Gore Ryder.

In Waterford, Mary Joseph, daughter of James Kent, Esq. In Kilkenny, Mary Nora, daughter of E H Tuompson, Esq. Surveyor of Income Tax

At Sunday's-well, Cork, Eliza Jane, child of Mr F Wells. In Galway. Charity, daughter of the late Monekton Somers, Esq. of Dublin.

At Burlington-road, Dublin, Lieut-Cel W E Sweny.

At Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, Isabella, wife of Thomas M Hozier, Esq.

Eleanor Anne, wife of the Rev Thomas Carson, LLD, Restor of Cloon, and Vicar-General of Kilmore.

At Mountpleasant-square, Dublin, Denis Ford, Esq.

At Kingstown, Lucinda, relict of the late Captain John T Quill. 82d Regt.

At Rathfarnbam, Emily M L Hayes, daughter of William A Hayes, Esq.

At Donnybrook, Anne, wife of Mr John Henderson.

At Kingstown, Mary, daughter of the late Martin Lynch, Esq. solicitor.

At Monkstown, county Dublin, Louiss, reliet of the Rev Thomas Thompson. While on a visit at Rempstone Hall, Notts, Mary Lucy Edwards, daughter of the late Colonel Edwards, of Old Court, county Wicklow. At Lough Esk, county Donegal. Anketell Young. Esq. brother of the late Sir Wm Young, Bart, Bailieborough Castle, county Cavan. At Eglish Glebe, county Armagh, Lucas Waring, Lieutenant 24th Regt, son of the Rev C Waring.

At Curracioe. George Augustus Saville, Esq. a retired Commander in the Royal Navy.

On the 2nd inst. in London. Lieut-Colonel Charles Holden, son of the late Robert Holden, Esq. of Nuttall Temple, Nottinghamshire.

At Hollacombe, near Torquay, Lieutenant-Colonel Elward Servante, HEICS.

At Banff House, Sir James Ramsay.

At Warriston House, near Edinburgh, the Dowager Lady Gray.

At Edinburgh, the Right Hon George William Evelyn Lealis, Barl of Rothes.

At the family seat in Warwickshire, the Earl of Aylest and. At Naples, Captain Thomas Gallway, RN, Her Britameto Majesty's Consul at that city.

At Great Yarmouth, John Sleator, Esq, of the 5th Royal Veteran Battalion

At Torquay, Lientenant Wm Maclean, 80th Regt.

At Windsor, Sally, wife of Captain John Duncan King, Military Knight of Windsor, and sister to the late Lord Chief Justice Tindal.

At Strathaven, Lanarkshire, Henry Muir, Eeq. MD, formerly Superintendent of Health of the Ionian Islands.

At Taunton, Somerset, the Rev B L Hill, incombent of St Barnabas, King-square, Loudon.

At Bath, the Rev John Owen. At Lucknow, Captain John Dawson, lat NI, lately commanding the 3d Oude Police Force.

At St Vincent, Frances, wife of the Ven Charles Lawson, Archdescon of Barbadoes.

On his passage from Calcutta, Wan H Plow, Esq. of H.M.S. Shannon,

DIO

Decer

HE ST which menta.

Appl Cecil-rt Dec.

Tho

MP

THO

Majest

Conser

Militar l-nev I the Ho d'Agri by the the da and su vigour the qu Beasts For S exceed

> The Cattle Agrica invent Cattle Class Earl

Secon

Prince

been a quicke

Sociel Assoc of A Halif of a

For on ap moni Roya Fish

Atho Davi Sir J Bart of th some

> Sold one per 100

ther Stat gate

Cal Cros

to le-G

upe