

ACT II.
 "Gazza Lutra".....Rossini.
 "Miss E. Osborne" } Bishop.
 "Air in G."—Mr Oury...Rode.
 "atful hour".....Emden.
 "Robin Adair" Miss } Kalkbrenner.
 "unning," with varia- }
 "Mr Oury." }
 "Mr Keays." } Bishop.
 "Mozart." } Mozart.
 BORNE. Leader of the Band—Mr.
 Violoncello—Mr. KEAYS. Flute—
 Pit, 3s. 4d. ... Gallery, 2s. 6d.
 ...past Seven, and Concert to com-
 ...
 ... of Mr. Osborne, Bank-Place; at Messrs. Corbett's Music Warehouse.
 H. O'Brien's, Bookseller, George's-
 ... from 11 to 3 o'clock, each day takes.
 Limerick, January 12, 1825.

BE SOLD,
 THE INTEREST OF
FARM IN THE COUNTY
TIPPERARY,
 Lives renewable for ever, at a Pepper
 Renewal Fine.
 Rent of £30 per Annum.
 Eighty-six Acres of excellent Tillage and is beautifully situated in the country, being on the Mail-Coach road
 ... to and from situated between the populous and of Cahill and Tipperary. The Land by a few respectable Families at
 ... and for November
 ... will be received 12, Lower Fitzwilliam-st. Dublin;
 N. Esq. George's-street, Limerick, information to a Purchaser.
 Limerick, January 12, 1825.

TO BE LET,
 25th day of March next,
 as may be agreed upon,
 DIVISIONS OF THE LANDS OF
Y AND GUARD, IN THE TOWN OF CULLIHER: OF THE LANDS OF
PPY, NEAR KILMEEDY, DIVISIONS OF THE LANDS OF GLANDUFF,
 in the County of Limerick.
 Writing to be made to ROBERT J.
 landuff, Charleville—or P. HAYES, January 12, 1825.

CHANCERY.
 Executor }
 Esq. dec. } Hickman } leased, and } date the 5th day of June, 1824, I will, on Wednesday, the 1st day of December, at one o'clock, in the afternoon of
 ... on the Inn's Quay, Dublin, set up ... to the highest and fairest bidder, the
 ...

from Galway; and Fisher, Key, from Tralee.
 The Adrona, Whitehead, for Liverpool, with grain, has struck on the Hoghead Rocks; she is on her beam ends, and became a wreck. The Cargo is taking out.
EXPORTS.
 Thetis, 161 tons, for Liverpool and Whitehaven, Taylor, master—for Liverpool—591 barrels wheat and 702 barrels oats—David Hunt; 625 barrels oats, 400 barrels wheat and 40 bags Flour—John Sharp & Co.—for Whitehaven, 10 ps.
 1326 3-10 gallons whiskey—Stein, Brown & Co; 36 tierces beef and 6 barrels pork—John Kelly & Co.

BIRTHS.
 At Parsonstown, the Lady of the Rev. William Egar
 Adams, of twins.
 In Kilkenny, the Lady of the Rev. Beresford Johnson, of a daughter.
 At Oldcastle, the Lady of the Rev. T. N. Halpin, of a son.
 The Lady of Sir Edward Knatchbull, of a daughter.
 At Chatham, the Lady of Lieut.-Colonel Burgoyne, Royal Engineers, of a daughter.
 At Teston, the Lady of the Hon. and Rev. F. J. Scott, of a son.

MARRIAGES.
 At her father's house, yesterday morning, by the Very
 Rev. Patrick Hogan, William Hackett, of Clare Street, Esq. to Margaret, eldest daughter of P. O'Callaghan, of George's-Street, Esq.
 On Sunday, at Newmarket-on-Fergus, by the Right Rev.
 Doctor O'Shaughnessy, Ignatius O'Leary, Esq. to Maria, eldest daughter of John Healy, Esq.
 In Dublin, Major Wolseley, 25th Regiment, to Frances Anne, second daughter of William Smith, Esq. of Golden Bridge House, County of Dublin.
 At Glanmire Church, Cork, Captain Holmes, late of the 63d Regiment, to Jane, eldest daughter of the late John Keefe, of Liverpool, Esq.
 Mr Stephen Leighton, of Cork, to Margaret, daughter of Mr Henry Phillips, of same City.
 At Creeagh Church, the Rev. John Tripbook, to Maria, youngest daughter of the late Rev. Joseph Wright, Vicar of the Union of Aghedown, Kilkenny, and Cape Clear.
 At Westport, County Mayo, the Rev. Robert Creighton, Presbyterian Minister, to Miss Catherine H. Kelly.
 Captain Briggs Andrews, 45th Regiment, to Henrietta, daughter of William Clarke, of Bristol, Esq.
 Surgeon Alfred Nicholson, Royal Navy, to the daughter of Luke Pocock, of Ashbore House, Kent, Esq.

DEATHS.
 In Henry Street, Mrs. Potter, relict of the late Mr.
 Michael Potter.
 In Dublin, Mrs Loftus, relict of Dudley Loftus, late of Anneville, County Meath, Esq.
 In Clare-street, the wife of Mr. William Kennedy, Printer.
 The Rev. Weldon Molony, Rector of the Parish of Dun-leekney, County Carlow.
 At Kilkenny, John Keough, Esq. for many years one of the Sheriffs of that City.
 In Newry, the wife of Mr James Speece, merchant.
 At Kingsfort, County Meath, James, the only son of John Farrell, Esq.
 In Cork, Richard Hare, Esq.
 In Dublin, Mr Robert Bates, formerly of the Irish War-
 Office, and late of the Impress Accounts Office.
 In Carlow, Mr Edward Deevy.
 In Cork, the wife of Mr James O'Keeffe.
 The widow of Mr James Molton, of Youghal.
 At Pelangwyn, near Pontypool, John Lewis, Esq.
 At Chiselhurst, the Right Honorable Lady Binning.
 At Richmond, Surrey, Adam Bell, Esq. late of the Vic-tualling Department at Deptford.

At Rome, her Highness the Princess Sapienza, of Biddulph, Lancashire, daughter and heiress of the late Peter Potwick, Bold, Esq. The Princess having left no issue, the entire estates devolve on Mrs Hoghton, wife of H. Hoghton, the most with the

THE MARKETS.
 The demand for Wheat this day was not so hot as last, owing to discouraging accounts from the ... maintained kets—Best Red brought from 1s 8d to 1s 9d ... feared that and White, 1s 8d to 1s 11d per stone—... mischief than demand at 10½d per stone—Barley, ... or 16 years past—stone—Flour, 44s per bag, for ...
 20s for thirds—Oatmeal keeps up ... parties have been