of Flannel for the children in the House of Industry.

Alderman Watson, Treasurer to the House of Industry, yesterday received from the Rev. Patrick Hogan, £20, being a half year's bequest (due the 23d of last May,) from the late Miss White, of this City, to that Charity.

The Steward of the House of Industry, has received from a Lady, at the Crescent, 7 Petticoats, 7 Bed Gowns, and 6 Shifts, to clothe that number of naked orphans in the institution—this benevolent gift was given most timely, as it enabled these unhappy creatures to leave their beds, to which they have been confined for some time back, for want of covering.

A Gentleman who visited the House of Industry on Sunday last, observing the miserable condition of the poor old women in one room, for want of fire, sent on Monday, half a ton of coals, to be used exclusively for their comfort during the present inclement season. Similar donations would be very acceptable.
