

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, after a short illness, Denis Fitzgerald Mahony, the youngest and beloved son of Doctor John Russell, Mallow-street.

At Cork, in the 86th year of his age James, son of the late Simon O'Grady Haly, of Ballyhaly, Esq. and Anne Barry, of Lemlara House, in that county.

At Tomgrany, county Clare, of fever, Jemima Wilhelmina, wife of M. H. Hennessy, Esq. and only daughter of the late Murrough O'Brien, Esq. of Tbonagh, great grandson of the Hon. Murrough O'Brien, son of William, Earl Inchiquin.

At his residence, Patrick's Hill, Cork, in the 75th year of his age, James Daly, Esq.

At Ferrybank, Waterford, Richard Walsh, Esq.

Emily, wife of the Rev. F. S. Bradshaw, and daughter of the late Rev. Mathew Purcell, Rector of Churchtown and Dungourney, county Cork.

At Copewood, Castletownroche, Miss Margaret Maginn, sister of Rev. C. A. Maginn, rector of that parish.

At Grattan's Hill, Cork, at an advanced age, Miss Hallnan.

At her residence, South Mall, Cork, Miss Jane Fitter, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Fitter, of the 67th Regiment, and grand-daughter of the late Richard Kellett, Esq. banker.

At Rosnalee, Nicholas, son of William Leader, Esq.

At Carrigaline, Cork, Timothy Healy, a faithful car driver to Charles Bianconi, Esq. for 33 years.

At Ventry Coast Guard Station, Agnes, wife of Mr. Peter Jenkins, and only daughter to Mr. Ross Townsend, Chief Boatman of the Lack Coast Guard Station.

Sarah, relict of the late Thomas Cogan, Esq. of Cork.

The Rev. Thomas Rolleston, Curate of Tullaghobegley, diocess of Raphoe.

At Primrose Hill, near Lucan, Augustus Heron, Esq. for many years Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, and Surgeon of the County Dublin Militia, in his 81st year.

At Upper Dorset-street, G. A. Acheson, Surgeon, R.N.

At North Frederick-street, John Chambers, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

The Rev. John White, parish priest of Baldoyle, co. Dublin.

In Killinconnery, Ardagh, the Rev. Bernard Shanly, C.C.

At Carrickmacross, the Rev. Francis McKenna.

At Casino, Roebuck, aged 16, Mary, eldest daughter of James D. Meldon, Esq.

At Clanwilliam-place, Lucy Emily, daughter of Richd. Peter, Esq.

At her son's residence, Nelson-street, aged 93 years, Frances, relict of Bolton of Brazil.

At Upper Temple-street, Anna Maria, relict of the late Gordon MacNeill, Esq.

At his residence, Henry-street, aged 86, Mr. Thos. Murphy, late of Irishtown.

In Upper Fleet-street, Mr. Henry Devine.

At Belfast, Charlotte Sinclair, relict of William Sinclair, Esq. in her 87th year.

Sarah Kennedy, eldest daughter of the Rev. Henry Wallace, of Derry.

Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. John Mitchell, Inspecting Chief Officer of Coast Guard, Steephaven.

At Magherafelt, Mr. Richard P. Fisher.

In Glasgow, Joseph Oldham, eldest son of the late Joseph Oldham, of Herbert-place, Dublin.

At Dorking, Lady Mary Leslie, youngest daughter of George Wm. Evelyn, eleventh Earl of Rothes.

In Buckingham-street, Adelphi, Robert Brooks, Esq.

At Barton-place, Camden Town, Ann, wife of Thomas Ansell, late of Hampstead.

At Dover, the Rev. Wm. W. Dakins, D.D. and LL.D. Rector of St. Magnus, London Bridge, and Vicar of Asheldon, Essex.

He was Chaplain General and Chaplain of the Forces from March, 1810, up to 1844.

Richard Pate Manning, Esq. aged 79, at Walton-lodge, Private Asylum, near Liverpool.

At King's College, London, Lady Jelt, aged 78.

At Ashwell Rectory, Rutlandshire, the Hon. and Rev. Thos. Dawnay.

At Notting-hill, James Roche, Esq. of the firm of Roche, Plowman, and Roche, Upper Wellington-street, Covent-garden.

At Cleveley-park, near Newmarket, Miss Mary Home Purves eldest surviving daughter of the late Viscountess Canterbury, and niece of the late Viscountess Blessington.

Mr. Hancock, Secretary to the Citizen Steam-boat Company.

Lady Mary Wynn, wife of Sir W. Wynn, of Bath, and daughter of the late Colonel Long, of Tubney Lodge, Berks.

At Ilfracombe, Jesse Foot, Esq., surgeon, formerly of Jamaica.

At King's Langley, Dorcas Squire, a member of the Society of Friends.

R. S. Henderson, Esq. Chairman of the Liverpool Dock Committee, and Alderman of Castle-street ward.

At her son's house, Lee-terrace, Blackheath, Penelope, widow of the late Captain William Farrer, of the East India Company's Service, in the 84th year of her age.

In Bristol, Freelove Hammond, Esq. barrister-at-law.

Suddenly, Capt. James Couch, R.N. of Stoke.

At Falmouth, suddenly, of apoplexy, William Croke, Esq. Commander Royal Navy.

At Antigua, on the 11th December, of yellow fever, George Kinahan, Esq. 54th Regiment, eldest son of Rev. John Kinahan.

On the 10th inst. of influenza, at Mountpleasant Avenue, Dublin, Jane, wife of Captain John Carrol Peach, Roscommon, and eldest daughter of the late Col. Boyle Vandeleur, of Ralahine, county Clare.

Suddenly, at Falmouth, Commander Cooke, R. N.

At Isle of Thanet, Lieut.-Colonel Clarke, late of Scots Greys.

Chief Commissioner of the Court for the sale of encumbered Irish Estates, and by Vincent Scully, Esq. Q. C. and to which many other distinguished members of the Bar have given their unqualified assent and signatures.

(Copy.)

EDWARD REYNOLDS, Esq.,
Fitzwilliam-square.

Castle Park, Dalkey
Aug. 27th, 1846.

DEAR SIR—It will give me very great pleasure at times to express the opinion which I entertain of your professional qualifications. I have had the pleasure of knowing you for a very long time, and have had peculiar opportunities of ascertaining your mode of doing business; and I feel bound to say that I do not know any gentleman better qualified than you are to fill the office of Second Taxing Officer of the Court of Chancery, or indeed any office connected with your profession.

I am, dear Sir, yours very truly,
JOHN RICHARDS

P.S.—You are at full liberty to make any use you please of this note.

(COPY.)

TO EDWARD REYNOLDS, Esq.,
Fitzwilliam-square.

Merrion-square, South
Aug. 28, 1846.

MY DEAR SIR—I have known you for many years and have never met any person of greater ability in your profession, or more competent to discharge its various duties.

I am, dear Sir, very faithfully yours,
VINCENT SCULLY

For the better information of the Profession and the Public generally, Mr. Reynolds begs to specify the various departments of the law to which his own attention will be devoted together with that of numerous staff of assistants now enlarged to the measure of anticipated exigencies.

To Gentlemen wishing to sell, resist, or otherwise interpose in proceedings for the Sale of Property under the Encumbered Estates Act—to parties interested in the Bankruptcy and Insolvent Court, where professional business is likely to accumulate—or in proceedings in the Court of Chancery and at the Equity side of the Exchequer, no less than in the superior Courts, Mr. Reynolds, while offering the guarantee of more than 20 years active experience, pledges himself to guard the interests of his Clients with the same diligence and integrity which has earned for him the Testimonials to which he so proudly refers.

Parties engaged in less protracted proceedings, desiring only oral advice, or to have case for Counsel made, Deed, Will, Lease, Marriage Settlement, Bill of Sale, Power of Attorney, Bond, Notices, Schedule, or other documents prepared; proof of debt made, judgment entered, registered, or satisfied; recognizance vacated, meet attended, or sequestrators or guardians account passed, will find immediate attention at this office, where Mr. R. will give his personal attendance from 10 to 5 daily.

To his brother Practitioners (those disposed to receive no fee not excepted) to Sub-Sheriffs, Returning-officers, &c. who may wish business executed in Dublin without their presence, to junior members of the Profession desiring assistance, and to parties wishing to have costs of any kind or extent drawn, corrected, taxed, Mr. R. confidently tenders the facilities of his establishment on the terms of any other respectable Solicitor.

For discharging the duties of the several departments efficiently, Mr. R. has carefully selected able and experienced persons, who will be constantly subject to his assiduous superintendance.

P.S.—A vacancy for an Apprentice, and time required) for payment of the Fee.