Editor of The Limerick Reporter has the future management of that Paper.
 Superintendence of that Journal, Mr. expressed his opinion of it in the following terms, in reply to a letter to the honorable Gentleman:
 "Derrybane Abbey, Sept. 25, 1839.
 Your Paper was, indeed, much wanting in and without flattery, it was scarcely possible a paper conducted with more skill, judgment, and literary talent of high order, to supply the want. If I can assist it in any way, as a useful addition, The Reporter can command me. * *
 * * * * *
 My anxiety for its success, and my consideration of the importance of so valuable a Paper, as a medium, to the public cause."

GREAT ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY

UNITED KINGDOM
Life Assurance Company

8, WATERLOO PLACE, PALL MALL And, Charlotte-Row, Mansion-House, I THIS Company, Established by Act of Pa affords the most perfect security, from Capital, and only requires, when an Insuranc the whole period of life, one-half of the very Premiums to be paid, for the first five years date of the Policy, the other half may remain to the payment of interest at 5 per cent. annu deducted at death, or may previously be p convenience.

It obviously becomes easy for a person of v rate income to secure, by this arrangement, a for his family; and should he at any time affecting the insurance succeed to, or acquire, he may relinquish his policy, having only half the premiums for the first five years, the whole as in all other Companies.

Thus a man of 25 years old may, by an annual payment of £26 16s. 3d. for the first five years, his widow and children at his death paym less than £3,000, subject only to the ded £144 1s. 3d. being the amount of premium

This Company holds out, in various othe great inducements to the public. When s ties are afforded, it is clearly a moral du parent who is not possessed of a fortune, income, however moderate, to insure his sum which may yield a comfortable provis family.
