They, however, on consultation, the effect of which was, to search my pockets Bank Notes, to a small silver, and my watch. On giving me the watch, which appeared much against the will of the party, I was followed by one of the party, who took the watch, and five shillings for the exchange.

...and to me to consist of about eleven or twelve fellows, six of whom had fire-arms, including two blunderbusses, and pistols; amongst whom was the old villain whose impertinence for my murder was nearly proved successful. Their search, however, was not successful; and I am to thank, that for the interference in my case by whom I was first addressed, and a victim to their disappointment.

K—WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19.

...happy to announce the appointment of Thomas Bunbury Gough, son of Lieut. Gough, to the Deanery of Derry. By his appointment, two valuable livings become vacant in the Deanery of Cashel and Ferns.

...Hon. Vesey Fitzgerald arrived in Dublin on Tuesday evening, from London. We are informed, that whilst at Holyhead preparing to board the packet, he had a very severe cold, from which, however, he is happily quite recovered.

...is shortly to take place in the chief Quarter-Master-General's department, the late Sir Benjamin D'Urban, who fills the distinguished post of Quarter-Master-General, having been appointed to the command of two of the West India Islands.

...enabled to speak with certainty as to the probability of succeeding to the vacant situation, and to stand in an arrangement to be in consequence of bestowing it on Colonel Jackson, who, while his Grace the Duke of Rich- mond is at present on half-pay, is intended to re-appear in his Regiment.

...has so much increased on the north-west coast, that it has been found expedient to provide for rendering the preventative service efficient on the coast. Three new regiments are to be formed in that line, including each of which a naval officer will be attached to instruct the revenue officers and to be on the coast, as advised by Government, and to his own local knowledge and observations. Three superior officers appointed to command these regiments, are two of them Captains, and the third a Lieutenant in the Royal Navy. Their salaries on half-pay, which with the emolument of their new duty, will amount to between £1000 and £1200 a year.

...has been sent us for insertion by the Editors of the following Gentlemen alluded to:

...authorised to state, that Patrick Barry Collop, on whose bodies the experiment was held at Boherbue, lived many hours without medical assistance—that the woman who was the subject—and that the four Medical Gentlemen who attended those persons while living, and whose names were on the certificates after death, were un-

THE MEDICAL HALL
34, LOWER SACKVILLE-STREET, DUBLIN.

IN consequence of a decision in the Court of King's Bench, in a Trial between the Governor of the Apothecaries Hall and Mr. CHARLES BEECH, wherein it was proved that no person can prepare or compound Medicines, or compound Medicines, unless previously examined at the Apothecaries Hall, or the College of Physicians, Dublin, Mr. Beech, in consequence of the decision of the Court, has instituted, to offer himself to the satisfaction of saying he has obtained a Diploma required for the practice of the Apothecaries, in addition to one received in 1816 from the Apothecaries Hall, London.

To the Nobility, Gentry, and the Public, who may honor him with their confidence in the preparation of Medicines, Mr. Beech has the honor to intimate that the same will be prepared with the most scrupulous neatness, cleanliness, and reasonable charge. The Establishment has been acknowledged to be the most complete and well-regulated in the Kingdom, and shall still be scrupulously observed.

Of the Quality of the Ingredients used in the preparation of Prescriptions and Recipes, Mr. C. B. thinks it his duty to make every one acquainted; it is sufficient to observe that the same is the same as sold in the Retail Drug Shops.
