

DEATHS.

At Victoria Terrace, on Sunday evening last, deeply lamented by her sorrowing family and friends, Sarah Maria, the beloved wife of Joseph Gabbett Maunsell, Esq.

At her residence, Henry-street, in her 85th year, Miss Dora White, sister of the late Henry White, Esq. Golden Hills, Tipperary. "Guileless simplicity marked her its ain."

On the 29th ult, Thomas Sampson, Esq. of Brook Lodge, son of the late Dennis Sampson, Esq. of St. Catherine's, co. Clara.

Of fever, Mrs. Ellen Moore. Her husband died about ten months ago, leaving her seven children.

At his house at Athlunkard-street, of decline, Anastasia Sheahan, sister-in-law to Mr. Joseph Moore, Sergeant-at-Arms.

At Ballynash, in this county, Jane, wife of Miles M'Mahon, Esq. and sister-in-law of Patrick M'Mahon, Esq. M.P. county Wexford, leaving six children to deplore a fond mother.

At Coolmakee, county Cork, aged 70, John Mahony, Esq.

At Brandon Cottage, Kerry, Jane, relict of the late Maurice Hussey, Esq. aged 74.

In Rostrevor, at an advanced age, Patience, relict of Wm. D. Baker, Esq. of Ballydavid, county Tipperary, and Lower Dorset street, Dublin, niece of the late Admiral Sir John Colpoys, and sister of the late Admiral Sir Edward G. Colpoys.

At his residence, Shanganagh Castle, near Bray, on the 30th instant, the Rev. George Cockburn, eldest son of the late Gen. Sir George Cockburn, G.C.H.

James Edmonds, Esq. son of the late Alderman Robert Edmonds, of Kilkenny.

Mr. William Patrick Ryan, of Altamira, Thomondgate, drawing master.

At George's-street, Cork, Frances, daughter of the late Thos. Gollock, Esq. aged 20 years.

At his residence, Blackrock-road, in his 65th year, Francis Seymour, for many years proprietor and manager of theatres in Cork and Limerick.

At Birch Hill, John Travers, Esq. J.P.

Jane, daughter of Mr. Richard Furniss, Architect, Kilkenny.

Henry Hughes, of George's-quay, last of the Kings of Dalkey.

He was interred in Glasnevin, attended by his nobles.

At Bundoran, Mrs. Gladstone, relict of Captain Gladstone, of the Donegal Militia, and sister of the late Colonel Cullen, of Skreeny, county Leitrim.

At Island-bridge, at the advanced age of 106 years, Catherine Walsh, for many years a pensioner on Sir Edward Blakeney's list, by whose benevolence her declining years had been supported in comfort and ease.

Drowned, off Lambay Island, in the wreck of the ship Taylor. Pattison, aged 28, only son of Stoddart Drysdale, Esq. of Richmond, Surrey.

In Bath, John Morris, Esq. son of Mrs. Captain Morris, of Waterford.

At Edgbaston, of malignant typhus fever, Roland and Arthur sons of the late Gregory Cuff Martin, Esq. of Sligo.

Catherine, widow of the late Christopher Crawley, Esq. of Bryansford Cottage, county Down.

At Edinburgh, Mrs. Candlish, mother of the Rev. Dr. Candlish, formerly Miss Jean Smith, the last of the six "belles of Mauchline," to whom the verses of Burns have given celebrity.

At Stepney, Mr. Daniel Hayes.

In Montagu-place, Portman-square, Anne, wife of Rear Admiral Digby

Robert Bevan, Esq. of Bury St. Edmund's, banker.

At Chesterfield, Robert Kinder, Esq. aged 79.

At Salisbury Place, Bermondsey, Anna Maria Jones, authoress of the "Gipsy," and other popular novels.

At Parkfield, Birkenhead, in his 75th year, John St. George, Esq. formerly Captain of the 80th Regiment, and late Lieut.-Colonel of the Salop Militia.

At Exeter Barracks, Armourer Sergeant John Williams, 3rd Light Dragoons.

At Llandaff, Glamorganshire, Miss Sarah Coffin.

At Penton Lodge, near Andover, Elizabeth, wife of William Cubitt, Esq. M.P.

At Barnoldby-le-Beck Rectory, the residence of her nephew, the Rev. M. H. Beecher, Catherine, daughter of the late Major Vowell, of Bath.

At Leicester, Mr Philip Klitz, professor of music, organist at All Saints' Church, and P.P.G.O. of Hampshire. One of his masonic compositions, "Faith, Hope, and Charity," is possessed by every lodge in the province.

At Campden-grove, Kensington, Colonel Francis Haleman, Madras Army.

At Durham, the Rev. George Stanley Faber, master of Sherburn Hospital, Durham, and Prebendary of Salisbury.

At Woodford, Elizabeth, wife of Abel Chapman, Esq.

At Lisbon, William Shelton Burnett, Esq. aged 70.

At Melbourne, Victoria, Captain Robert Jacomb, R.N.

The Rev. Laurence Gillie, Professor of Scripture and Hebrew in the H.C. College, Maynooth.

At his residence, Lowndes-square, Rear Admiral Sotheby.

At the Royal Hospital, Chelsea, John Richard, second son of Capt. John Devern, of that establishment.

At his seat at Morrisdown, near Plymouth, Sir Ralph Lopes, Bart. M.P. for South Devon.

At Nice, the Hon. Wm. Hamilton Stuart, son of the Earl of Castlestuart.

to send conditio
upwards
Pale a Real
John
W
Real
S
G
Strong be
Other
Finest
Good
P

Walt

Ships.
James C
Arabia
These A
gers on th
and upwa
For fur

Feb. 1.

"Gold

Guiding
10th Feb.
Montgom
to sail 10th
Miles Ba
and Sydney
Star of t bourne, to

days—The record.
The acco intermediate ary will be passage app
Jan. 27.

THE GU
on Fri
consider Te publishing
months, fro
Tenders
11 o'Clock,

Workhou