

to imprisonment for respectable flour merscrea, was at church, the purpose of robbing ately they were disap-ation before he went the wheat in his mill.
day, three armed men kner, in the parish of several stand of arms, d at the hall-door of which carried away part of glass; part of the This gentleman was anding him not to pay at his seat, Cratloe erary, has positively dress Lord Mulgrave.
ed on Thursday at a Orphan Society in r advocated the cause ription was made in Crotty's Independent 00. e establishment of the Society of the county
h next.
t, to which Chapel the im on Sunday next, service at the parish accepting any salary enty-four notices of arliament were given the King's Bench Jew, he is therefore ast few days, that the -Suir, had absconded otes, and was arrested aterford. It has not ut £150 was found on the Bench were the
and M. Gavin, Esq.
p the peace to Mr.
of St. Mary's parish. mill for 14 days, for Namara and M'Eniry, days, for assaulting a s Guerin for break-
o pay for the damage.
Brien, of Newcastle, ceiving his watch in and refusing to give be restored to Kelly,
it. John Mulacky of the day Police for regating with others each. Informations for assaulting Mich.
ar offence, was fined inst Edw. Keays, for nging to Miss Mary or using abusive lan-lan, 5s. for retaining son of John Killegrew Dunbar, late Major of the 83d Foot, to Emma, youngest daughter of John Daniel Kane, late Lieutenant-Colonel of the 4th or King's Own, of Williamstown, Dublin.

At Madras, W. Pitcairn, Esq. of the Madras Artillery, to Emily, youngest daughter of the late Charles Maidman, Esq. of Civil Service.
At St. George's, Hanover-square, Richard Brouneker, Esq. of Boveridge, Dorsetshire, to Catherine Jane, youngest daughter of the late Captain Burdett, R.N.
DEATHS.
At Moyne Glebe, near Thurles, on the 4th instant, Matilda, wife of the Rev. Richard Harte. The death of this amiable Lady and infant was occasioned by iring from a shot having been fired under her window by some of the present disturbers of the public peace in the county Tipperary, when in hourly expectation of her confinement.
In Killarney, of consumption, Sarah, wife of Mr. Wm. A. Ellis, and eldest daughter of the late Mr. Wm. Bowles, of Limerick.
In Kinsale, Helena, relict of George Daunt, Esq. of Newborough, aged 78 years.
At Killarney, Mrs. M'Donogh, widow of the late John M'Donogh, Esq. of that town.
In Clonmel, Mrs. Margaret King.
At Cullentra, in her 19th year, Rhoda, third daughter of George Little, Esq.
James Henderson, Esq. of Killybegs, county Donegal, formerly a Lieutenant in the Derry Militia.
At Parsonstown, Margaret, relict of the late John Wear, barrister-at-law.
In Douglas-street, Cork, Mr. James Enright.
At Roundstone, Margaret, second daughter of John Nimmo, Esq.
William Patterson, of Mason Lodge, near Nn-Cunningham, county Donegal, Esq. aged 86 years.
Eliza, wife of Christopher Carbery, of Longford, aged 28 years.
In Castlebar, Honora, sister of Mr. William Geraghty.
Of scarletina, Elinor, aged thirteen years; and William, aged eight years, children of Richard Saunders, of Seville-place, Esq.
At Ballybay, Maria, eldest daughter of the Rev. Charles Burton, aged 17 years.
In Clonmel, at an advanced age, Mr. Walter Keating.
Admiral Packenham, father-in-law of Colonel Conolly, M.P. for Donegal.
At Lismore, Mr. Richard Huddy, Postmaster.
Robert Gamble, Esq. an old and respected merchant of Belfast.
Wednesday, after some days' illness, at his house in Catherine-street, Captain Benjamin Roche, formerly of the 5th and 30th Regiments, in which he served several years. He was a man of intrepid spirit, and nice sense of honour; though rather singular in some peculiarities of manner, which those who knew his worth at once overlooked, for none could exceed him in warmth of friendship, integrity of principle, and genuine benevolence. His private charities were numerous, but not ostentatious. Captain Roche was 13 years an inmate of French prison during the general war of the Bonaparte dynasty, and he served in the British Army with distinction in America and the West Indies. His remains will be interred in the family vault at Croom on Friday morning.
At Roebuck, Dublin, Thomas Leland, Esq. a highly respectable and eminent Solicitor. Mr. Leland was the son of the celebrated Doctor Leland, a Senior Fellow of the University, and author of the "History of Ireland."
In Sackville-street, Dublin, Hugh O'Connor, jun. Esq.
Of consumption, Anne Caroline Amelia Stuart, daughter of George Stuart Hawthorne, Esq. M.D. of Belfast.
At Sunday's Well, Cork, Thomas Wm. Hamilton, only surviving son of William H. Hamilton, Esq. half-pay 14th Foot.
Mrs. Thompson, relict of Mr. John Thompson, Coroner, Tipperary.
At Ballintemple, county Tipperary, Mrs. Bagnell, wife of the Rev. Mr. Bagnell.
At Ninch, county Meath, James Tracy, Esq.
At Ardglass, county Down, Vesey Edmond Ward, son of the Rev. E. F. Knox.
At Newtownlimavady, Isabella, wife of Lieutenant Fenwick, Royal Engineers.
At Glenart, county Wicklow, (four days after the birth of a son), Isabella, wife of the Hon. Granville Levison Proby.
At Belgrave-square, London, the Hon. Mrs. Frederick Cox.
John Edward, the eldest son of Dr. Ashwell, Devonshire-square.
At Portman-square, Edgware-road, Thomas Glover, Esq.
At Sherington, Buckinghamshire, John Cheyne, Esq. M.D. late Physician-General to the Forces in Ireland.
At the Grove, Clapham, Surrey, William Jameson, Esq.
At Newington, Southwark, Sarah, widow of Thomas Kewell, of the Society of Friends.
At Foleshill, Stephen Yates, Esq. late of Springfield, Warwick.
At Edstone, county of Warwick, John Phillips, Esq. aged 77.
At Nantyr Hall, Denbighshire, Richard Tyrwhitt, Esq. Recorder of Chester.
In Edinburgh, Lieutenant-Colonel F. Bowes, late of the 12th Regt.
In Glasgow, John Lindsay Crauford, Esq. He was one of the claimants for the Crauford Peerage.
At Boulogne-sur-Seine, Sir John James Scott Douglas, Bart. of Springwood Park and Long Newton, county of Roxburgh, N.B.
At Rajcote, Bombay, Veterinary Surgeon Thomas Knox Stroud, of the 3d Native Infantry, aged 24 years. Mr. Stroud was the only surviving son of the late Lieut. Thomas Stroud, of the 4th Regiment.
At Nagpore, Conductor C. M'Carthy, of the Ordnance Department.
At Demerara, Aulay M'Aulay, Esq.
At Bangalore, East Indies, Ensign A. Charles Morris, 39th Regt. son of Lieut.-Colonel Morris, of Brockham-Lodge, Surrey.
At Meerut, Capt. Gervase Pennington, the Bengal Horse Artillery.

TAKES leave to inform the Nobility, Gentry Public in general, that he has re-opened the Gy at the usual hours, for Gentlemen, on Mondays, We and Fridays, at half-past Seven in the morning fo and the junior Class, Three in the afternoon. The k Class for young Ladies, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, a days at Three o'clock in the afternoon.

Though M. H. supposes that it is unnecessary to many high testimonials already given in recommen those exercises, (having published in circulars the c to that effect, of every eminent physician of the pr of Ireland, Great Britain and the Continent,) resist taking an extract from "The London M Surgical Journal." Lectures by Professor Samu delivered at the University of London:—

"There is a deformity of the spine arising in y sons who are growing with great rapidity, esp females, which does not depend on any disorder of analagous to rickets, but on the circumstance of su duals not exercising their muscles equally, or on t prevented from taking the free and unconstrained and exercises most agreeable to nature. Under advantages, the spine becomes deformed without a fection in the texture or development of the bones. sequently there is no ricketty disease of them curvature of the spine which has arisen from suc not so considerable, and the growth of the individ yet completed, the deformity may be removed, by the muscles of the trunk be daily exercised in a fre and uniform manner, so as not to suffer one set more into action than another. It is on those prin Gymnastic Exercises become exceedingly useful in ment of deformities of the spine, which are so co girls during their growth."

Mr. H. begs to observe, that of upwards of thirty pupils, that Monsieur Huguenin, of Dublin, and instructed in this country they have never had to l slightest accident; and further, that where acci occurred, it has been where no Instructor superint Exercises, and where the Teacher was inexperienced

Terms—For private Lessons to be known at the Gy Monsieur Huguenin continues, as usual, to tea and Italian to private families and Schools.
Limerick, No. 7, Upper Cecil-street, Bankrupt.

THOMAS HYNES, of the Town of Ennis, in t of Clare, Woollen Draper, Dealer and Chap persons who are indebted to the said Bankrupt, or any of his goods or effects are to pay or delive to the said Thomas Hynes, but give notice thereof Fitzgerald, Jun. Agent to the Commission, No street, Dublin. Feb

REMOVAL.

Thursday the 28th January In the Court for relief } IN the matter of JOH of Insolvent Debtors. } GUNN, an Insolvent motion of Mr. John Attorney for John Raymond a Creditor of said and on reading the affidavit of said John Chadw ordered by the Court that Jeffrey O'Connell, I present Assignee, be removed as Assignee, an appointment of another in his stead be fixed to before this Court on Tuesday the 16th day of Febru unless good cause be shewn to the contrary and the present Assignee, the Insolvent, and the severa of said Insolvent are to have Fourteen days service of this order, said services to be made ac the usual rule of this Court.

By the Court
PETER BURRO
Chief
JOHN CHADWICK, Attorney for said JOHN
No. 16 Dawson-street, Dublin.