 [The statement in our last of the marriage between Captain Fitz-Gerald, of the 58th Regiment, and Fanny, daughter of Lieutenant Collins, of the same Corps, at Philipstown, we are requested to say, was premature.]

DEATHS.

On Sunday night, at his house, Upper Henry-street, in his 69th year, Edward Collis, Esq. for many years Brigadier Major to the Yeomanry in the District of Clare and Galway. That the impulse of feeling induced by separation from those who were loved, because they deserved to be loved, should be evinced by animated, perhaps by impassioned expression of that feeling, cannot appear remarkable to those "who mourn the dead, by living as they required." And though the survivors of this highly respectable Gentleman are warned by this feeling, yet, in noticing his peaceful removal from a transient to an unchangeable state, while they declined the routine of obituary praise, they wish to pay a deserved tribute to the memory of a most affectionate parent, and sincere friend—who, without the pomp of religious profession, shewed in long seclusion from public life, and in the kindly endearment of social intercourse, (though labouring under afflicting and increasing debility, consequent on service, military service, to which the prime of his life had been devoted), a steady and exemplary regard to the duties of life; and who, as was expected by those who were favoured with his intimacy, died peacefully, supported by the hope which fails not, which he had kept in view through a protracted indisposition.

On Sunday, at his house in George's street, Mrs. O'Sullivan, wife of Henry O'Sullivan, Esq.; a Lady whose death is a source of infinite affliction to a numerous circle of friends and acquaintance.

On Sunday last, aged 17, Anthony, second son of J. Copley, Esq. of Ballyclough, to the inexpressible grief of his family and friends.

In Pallis Kenry, at the house of her brother, William Griffin, Esq. M. D., Ellen, daughter of P. Griffin, Esq. formerly of this City.

At Newcastle, near this City, Mr. D. Fitz-Gibbon.

In Roche's-street, of fever, Mr. Maurice O'Shea, book-binder and copperplate printer. His death is a source of affliction to his distressed widow and six helpless orphans, who are now convalescent from fever. The attention of the affluent and humane is called to their miserable state.

At her house in Patrick's-street, Cork, Mrs. Tarrant, aged 58 years, relict of the late Samuel Tarrant, Esq. of Mallow.

In Marlborough-street, Cork, Arthur Hurley, Esq. for nearly thirty years Surveyor to his Majesty's Customs in the Ports of Cork and Kinsale.

On Morrison's Island, Cork, Ellen, the wife of Mr. Robert Hardy, and niece of the late Alderman Harris, of that City.

At the Harbour of Ventry, Mrs. Rice, relict of the late Patrick Rice, of Faun, Esq.

At Youghal, Frances, relict of Joseph Cartwright, of the City of Kilkenny, Esq.

In Cork, Samuel, son of Thomas Merrick, Esq.

At Weymouth, Mr. John McKenna, Revenue Officer, late Coast Officer at Dingle, County Kerry.

On the 30th ult. at his brother's residence, Cullenswood, after a tedious illness, John Heyland, Esq. in the 32d year of his age.

Aged 23 years, Josiah Manliffe, Esq. of Cuffe-street, Dublin.

At Kingsborough, County Roscommon, of a lingering illness, Henry Gardiner, Esq.

At Drummin, near Mohill, Mr. Darby Ganon, many years in the employment of the late Luke White, Esq. as under Agent for his estates in the County Leitrim.

In Sligo, in consequence of her clothes having taken fire, aged 23 years, Miss Griffith, of Ballytivnon.

At Portsmouth, Elizabeth, wife of Lieut. Forster, Royal Navy, of his Majesty's ship Victory.

At Hoddesden, General John Adolphus Harris.

Lately, at Ayr, N. B. after many years' suffering from the effects of severe wounds on the head, received at the storming of Fort Pickurina, Badajos, Lieutenant Colonel Budd, late of the 77th regiment, leaving a widow and eight children to lament his irreparable loss.

At Stonnington, Sussex, Mrs. Bishopp, widow of the late Colonel Harry Bishopp.

In Old Burlington-street, William Griffin, Esq. aged 55, late Secretary of the Board of Ordnance.

At Rotterdam, in his 63d year, Rear Admiral J. S. May, Naval Commissioner, and Port Admiral there, Knight of the Royal Military Order of William, Grand Cross of the Russian Order of St. Ann, and member of several learned societies.

At Dawlish, Devon, aged 54 years, Lieut. General Alexander Cosley Jackson.

undoubtedly, which cannot be exceeded for neatness and durability, giving employment to more than fifty families in this City—the remainder being purchased under his own inspection, in the different manufacturing towns of England and Ireland, for Cash, enables him to offer the entire for sale on as good terms as any house in trade, viz.—

Cloths, Beavers, Naps, Kersey, Cords and Waistcoatings, Green and White Baizes, Welch Flannels, Figured, Plain and Strong home-made Stuffs, Tammys, Serges, and Lincys, English and Irish Blanketting, Ticks, Counterpanes and Servants Quilts, House Sheeting, Home-Made and Coltrane Millspun Linens and Diapers, Russia Duck and Sail Cloth, Furniture and Garment Calicoes, Muslins, Nets and Laces, Shawls and Handkerchiefs, Worsteds Plaids, Gingham, Jeans, Batteens, Whalebone, Dimities, Cheques, Hosiery, Gloves, Princettas, Bombazines, Silk Handkerchiefs and Trimmings, with a variety of other Goods too numerous for insertion.

 WAREHOUSE,
 RATHKEALE.

D. FERGUSON, JUN.
 HAS just received from Cork, Fourteen Puncheons of Superior Old Malt Whiskey, with a general supply of Teas, Sugars, Wines, Spices, and every article in the above line, which he means to dispose of on very moderate terms, for ready money.

He has also for sale, in the Yard immediately connected with his SALT and LIME Concerns, a quantity of very fine TIMBER and DEALS, Orrell and Liverpool COALS, BRICK, FLAGS, and a variety of other articles; and as he has availed himself of the facility which Askeaton affords, to get these articles by water-carriage to his Store in that town, the land-carriage from thence to his Concerns in Rathkeale being comparatively trifling, he is enabled to dispose of them on very encouraging terms.

COUNTY OF CLARE.
 THE COMMISSIONERS of His Majesty's Customs hereby give Notice, that they will dispose of the INTEREST of the Crown in that Extensive Range of Buildings, forming a Quadrangle, and called CAP-PAGH STATION, near the Pier of Kilrush, either in the Whole or in Lots, viz.—The Two principal Buildings, with their respective Out-Offices, in front of the Square, to form two Lots, and the other three sides of the Square upon which are the Boatmen's Houses and small Gardens in their rear, to form Three more Lots—in all five.

The Situation is peculiarly eligible and the Buildings in good condition. They can be viewed and particulars known by application to the Board's Officer, at Kilrush, the Collector and Comptroller of Limerick; and for title, to the Solicitor, E. A. WALLER, Esq. at his Office, Custom-House, Dublin.

Proposals, sealed and directed to the Secretary of Customs, Custom-House, Dublin, will be received until the 1st March next.

February 7.

DUBLIN.

THE NATIONAL MARKET IN THE CITY OF DUBLIN, will open on the 28th Instant, where the greatest selection of manufactured goods are expected, ever offered for sale or exhibited in one concern in this kingdom. The Assortment will comprise both the Manufactures of England and Ireland, thus creating a competition and giving peculiar advantages to the purchaser without being subject to the loss of time and other inconveniences attending the going from one warehouse to another. It is also expected that this Market will materially contribute to the prosperity of every part of Ireland, as the raw material or manufactured goods of every description will be received in this Establishment, where buyers both foreign and domestic will resort, thus concentrating in one view the manufacturing resources of Ireland, which hitherto have been too much neglected. Market days to be Wednesday and Saturday, from Eleven till One o'Clock, and during the remainder of the week each day from Ten till Four o'Clock, for private sale.

N. B.—Manufacturers or persons in the country who intend opening Ware-houses in this Concern, will please apply by letter (post paid,) to GEORGE HOME, Dublin, Usher's Quay, February 6, 1827.

and proper Marshalsea in said Jail. Sealed Proposals, directed to the Rev. MICHAEL FITZGERALD, Local Inspector, will be received until the 17th inst. Ennis, February 3.

TO BE LET.

FROM the 25th March next, for such term as may be agreed on, the HOUSE and CONCERNS in Wickham-street, near the Corner of Thomas-Street, now held by Mr. John Fitz Gibbon, consisting of Out-Offices, Stables, a large Yard and a Passage adjoining the house for horses and cars, which is a great convenience, as cars found in the street are fineable. It is unnecessary to comment on its situation, being considered one of the first in that neighbourhood for public business, being established upwards of thirty years in that line; or any other business that could require room. Apply to JOHN O'MEALLY, Esq. Wickham-street. February 7.

STOLEN OR STRAYED,

FROM the lands of Goadanna, in the County of Limerick, on Saturday night, the 2d Instant, the property of Robert Lawton, of Tipperary, TWO IN-CALF HEIFFERS, strong and well fed, one of them red with two white hind legs and white back and belly; the other rather white with brown spots, the tail high and a rise in the back. Any person finding said Heifers shall receive TWO GUINEAS reward.

MENDICITY ASSOCIATION.

WANTED, a SCHOOL MISTRESS for this Establishment. None need apply but those who can be well recommended. Application to be made to the Secretary, and left with the House Steward, (Mr. Henry Anderson,) on or before MONDAY, the 5th of February next.

Election to take place on Tuesday, 6th February, at 12 o'Clock, precisely.

In consequence of the non-attendance of Members, the Election of SCHOOL MISTRESS is postponed to Tuesday, 13th inst. at 12 o'Clock.

JOHN HUNT, Secretary. Limerick, February 6.

AT a Meeting of the Protestant Inhabitants of the Parish of Birr, in the King's County, and of the Officers of the 99th Regiment, quartered at Birr Barracks, held at Parsonstown, on Thursday, the 4th January, 1827—for the purpose of proposing an Address to the Rev. William Agar Adamson, Curate, on his promotion to another Parish. John Brereton, Esq. and Captain Andrew Mitchell, Churchwardens, in the Chair.

The following Address proposed by the Honorable John Parsons, and seconded by Simpson Hackett, Esq. was unanimously agreed to, to be accompanied with a piece of Plate, such Address, and Mr. Adamson's answer, to be published in The Dublin Evening Mail, and Limerick Chronicle.

"DEAR AND REV. SIR—Allow us to express our sincere regret, that we are no longer to have the benefit of your care in the discharge of your sacred functions.—We can all appreciate the distinguished manner in which you have discharged the public duties of your station, and we have individually heard of your disinterested acts of charity, and active exertions in promoting and forwarding the Charitable Institutions of this Town, which ever must endear your name to the Inhabitants of this Parish—but, the poor alone, could witness the unremitting assiduity with which you enquired after, and alleviated the miseries of a populous District—in you they have lost a zealous friend, and until the memory of past kindness is extinct, they must ever feel truly grateful.

"Permit us to add, that it is with heartfelt sorrow we part, at least we hope you are nearer to a reward your merit deserves.

"Accept, we request, the accompanying piece of Plate, as a token of our respect and esteem, and be assured, that although removed, we shall ever retain a grateful sense of your Ministry, and a sincere desire for your welfare and happiness."

JOHN BRERETON, }
 ANDREW MITCHELL } Churchwardens.
 To the Rev. Wm. Agar Adamson, Parsonstown.

To the Inhabitants of the Parish of Birr, &c. &c. &c.
 MY DEAR AND MUCH RESPECTED FRIENDS—With a heart deeply affected by a sense of your kindness, I beg to offer you my sincere and grateful thanks for your very obliging and flattering Address; for those sentiments of regret which you have been pleased to express at my departure from the care of your respectable Parish, and for the handsome piece of Plate which has accompanied your approbation of my exertions.

Mine is no common reward—and words cannot express how much I feel your kindness. Ungrateful, indeed, should I be, did I not set the highest value on your good opinion and approbation, or could I at any future period of my life, reflect, without emotion of pride and gratitude on the kindness and attention which have been bestowed upon me, since I was placed amongst you—nor can I ever fail to remember, that to the favorable representation of my humble, although sincere endeavours to discharge my duties faithfully, much less than to any real merit of my own, am I to attribute the promotion which has been conferred upon me.

Amidst the regret which my removal from the Society of such kind and valuable Friends must occasion to me, it is a source of consolation to witness the superintending care which has been used to provide efficiently for your spiritual wants in future—and I beg to assure you, that your happiness here and hereafter, must remain to me during life, matter of the deepest concern and consideration.—Believe me, your faithful, and much obliged Servant,
 W. AGAR ADAMSON.
