THE PAPER TRADE

At a numerous Meeting of the Paper M of Ireland, held at Radley's Hotel, Buildings, College-green, on the 8th inst
EDWARD M'DONNELL, Esq. in th
It was unanimously resolved to forward to the Lords of the Treasury, praying Repeal of the Duty on Paper, and to P Houses of Parliament for an abolition of th
The following is a copy of the Memorial TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE AND HONO LORDS OF THE TREASURY:

That Memorialists are largely engaged i facture of Paper in Ireland, and are una opinion that the present Duty and its mod tion are most injurious to the trade, most the manufacturer, and highly prejudicial t of education and the extension of manuf provement, which are so much wanted in rished country.

That the present rate of duty, which av 20 to 80 per cent. on the value of the a oppressive, by cramping the capital of the rer, especially in Ireland, where it is also offering an enormous reward to the sm great detriment of the fair trader.

That in consequence of the great reductio of paper, caused by the competition of and the extension of manufactures, the du nearly as high in the value of the article as levied at three pence per pound; and this felt in this country, where, owing to t poverty, the consumption is chiefly fo class papers.

That the arbitrary and restrictive Exc for the collection of the duty, by the weig weighing, affixing labels on each ream, stock, and the penalties attached to the take in any of these forms, are both dilat pensive, and calculated to impede the ma the exercise of his skill, and prevent his fair competition with the foreign manufa energies and means are not cramped by s restrictions.

That this tax is a great check on the books and the diffusion of knowledge, mu from the fact that on school book paper i 20 per cent.; and this counteracts the that would result from the instruction of its effect on the price of the article.

That a manufacture which causes a lar of wages thereby affording employment to of operatives, which is of so much value i ought to be encouraged, in place of bein a heavy, direct, and most unequal tax; a would have the effect, by the ext which is sure to follow, of giving tional employment to a large number different kinds, such as millwrights, en and wire manufacturers; and the dimi cost of paper would greatly promote p binding, bookselling, all tending to the i ployment.

For these reasons Memorialists hum Lordships to recommend to Parliamen peal of the duty on paper.

Mr. Edward M'Donnell having been n chair, and Mr. John M'Donnell being the thanks of the meeting were unanimo the prior chairman.
