

nesday, 8 p.m.—

ma Sunday—Celrick Asylum for Prayer at 11.30; Haydn, LL.D. Sermon, Rev. Chas. Service at 3.30.

agesima—Morning, 7.0. Preacher tuagesima Sunday Morning Service, 6.30. Sermon. Meeting for on)—Septuagesima 6 o'clock. Preacher

r Mallow-street)—Preacher at both ends, C.F., Scottish -street)—Morning, 11.0. Evening, 7.0. Rev. H. Drule, Sermon, at 8 p.m. (in schoolhouse) Week Service at 8 services: 9.30 a.m. Sermon, C.F.; 11.30 a.m. Sermon, C.F.; 6.45 p.m.; Bible School Prayer Meeting, 7 p.m.

3 Services, 11.30 (in schoolhouse).

Morning Prayer, 8 o'clock.

Morning Prayer at 6 o'clock.

6).—Usual meeting, 7 o'clock.

oil-street)—Sunday, 11 o'clock.

AND GRAZING

held at the Sales- room, today. Two houses, 140 and Commission. withdrawn for sale by auction of the lands of 100 per acre. Second lot of other grazing advertisements being deemed by of Wood Cutting Institute, the following in silence:—"That sympathy and condolence of the late Mr H. Mement occasioned by the vote of the mediate relative and

M'MAHON.

BOU

m bronchitis, follow-

Hastings, solr; G R Ryan, E Leahy, solr; A J Sexton, J A Place, J S Gaffney, CS; J O Myles, solr; Sir V Nash, DL; CH Fitt, J Dodds, solr; Dr W A Fogerty, J Bromell, M S Slater, C Slade, Dr R M S McGrath, J Welply, W B Fitt, R Nash, solr; J A Doyle, solr; G Belshaw, A J Barnett, A Murray, W Christy, E Christy, S Christy, R Cussen, solicitor, Newcastle West; R Welsh, Clonlara; Dr C Blood, C Downey, T Hassett, J N Russell, A B Hamilton, C Ebrill, solicitor; P J Hamilton, P Hartigan, T Ledger, J Waugh, M Downey, A Blood Smyth, solicitor; J Egan, P E O'Donnell, solicitor; T Grubb, V J Turner, D O'Callaghan, solicitor; G Morris, R Coplen-Langford, J P; W M Nolan, J P; C C Mercier, H V Morony, C O'Donnell, solicitor; J T C Day, J H Moran, solicitor; J Ellis, E Bennis, A J Eakin, M D McCoy, solicitor; J J Dandop, solicitor; J Thomson, T O'B Kelly, solicitor.

Carrriages were sent by—Mrs O'Brien, South Hill; Mrs Semple, R Welsh, Clonlara; Dr Ryan, Castleconnell; Mrs Rose, A Murray, and Captain Sir Francis Kearney.

References at Petty Sessions.

At the City Petty Sessions yesterday, references of a sympathetic nature were made by the magistrates on the death of Mr Benjamin Barrington, solicitor, for many years a practitioner in the court.

Mr P J Kelly, R.M., said the magistrates had learned with regret of the death of Mr Barrington, a gentleman who practised in that court, and was highly respected. They desired to place on record their sorrow at the death of that gentleman, who was called away so unexpectedly.

Mr R Nash, solicitor, said he should like to associate himself, on behalf of the members of his profession, with the expression of sympathy that had fallen from the Bench with regard to Mr Barrington's death. Mr Barrington was a very highly respected member of the legal profession; he was gentle, courteous, and obliging, and his death had evoked the deepest sympathy of the citizens with his relatives.

District Inspector Craig expressed his regret at the death of Mr Barrington; as did Mr D O'Callaghan, Clerk of Petty Sessions, who remarked that the deceased gentleman was unflinching in courtesy and a man of the highest honour.

DEATH OF MR R N RUSSELL.

We regret to announce the death, which occurred yesterday morning at his residence, 8 Ballinacorra Terrace, of Mr Richard Norris Russell, J.B., formerly of Plassy. The deceased gentleman, who had reached an advanced age, had been ill for a week or so. His demise is much regretted by a wide circle of friends, none more so than in Ballinacorra, where his kindly and unobtrusive manner won for him the high esteem of all classes and creeds. Mr Russell, who was unmarried, was an old member of the County Grand Jury, and a County Magistrate. He farmed pretty extensively. The funeral is announced to take place on Monday next at ten o'clock for St Mary's Cathedral.

MARYBOROUGH ASYLUM AND THE 56-HOUR WEEK.

The Maryborough Asylum Committee have adopted the principle of a 56-hour week, and appointed four of their members to confer with the doctors and representatives of the staff as to the arrangements for bringing the new time scale into operation.

The ladies engaged in these activities were—Lauy Nash, Mrs Coogan, Mrs O'Grady, Mrs O'Connor, and Miss Doyle. Mr M D Shaw was appointed hon secretary of the movement, and Mr E F M Melville hon treasurer.

Sir Charles Barrington announced the receipt of a promise of £25 from the War Hospital Supply Depot towards the entertainment.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman concluded the meeting.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Mr J F Barry, J.P., City Coroner, held an inquest to-day at Barrington's Hospital, with a jury, as to the death of John Kirby, railway porter, on Thursday last, as the result of an accident at the goods station of the Great Southern and Western Railway Company, Carey's Road, on the evening of Friday, 7th instant. Kirby was crossing a space of three yards between some waggons one section of which was struck by a train engaged in shunting, and the young man caught by the buffers. Shouting was heard, and some men rushed to Kirby's assistance, the injured man replying to queries on the subject that he was not hurt. A button of his vest was found flattened, and later on he had to be removed to hospital. The testimony of Dr Holmes was that death was due to peritonitis and heart failure caused by the right hip and the right side of the abdomen being crushed, and that the injuries would result from being caught between buffers while shunting. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death from injuries received while at his ordinary duties.

POLICEMAN ATTACKED IN WEST CLARE.

Court-martial Charge.

At a General Court-martial at Cork on Thursday presided over by General Griffin, Thomas Keane, a civilian, of Carrigaholt, Co Clare, was charged with committing an assault upon Constable James Reynolds.

Mr Wolfe, Crown Solicitor, said that on the 5th of last month Constable Reynolds, while cycling from Kilrush to his station, was attacked by four men, thrown off his bicycle and beaten. He was deprived of his revolver, £6, and a despatch for his sergeant. He was next taken into a field, and, with his hands tied together, was left in a ditch to die. After some hours he freed himself from the ropes with which he was bound and reached his station next morning. His attackers were not disguised. He identified the accused, and two men named Hare and Scanlon as the men who had attacked him.

Constable Reynolds swore that Scanlon knocked him off his bicycle, and Hare seized his baton and hit him on the head with it. When he drew his revolver Keane, the accused, threw a cloth over his head. His hands were tied behind his back, his feet were also tied, and he was thrown on the ground and kicked, Hare remarking—"Take that." He was searched, and his hand-cuff, baton, revolver, despatch, and money were taken from him, as well as his bicycle. He was "ducked" in a drain, and carried fifty yards across a field, and left lying on his back. The witness had been to the house of the accused before this occurrence looking for Hare, who was charged with unlawful assembly, and was "on the run."

To Dr Dunlea (for the defence)—His watch was not taken. He denied that he had been drunk.

Dr John Studdert deposed to having treated