

Great Britain; and will sense say, that it conte executive government itish Crown? Whoever tack upon the Monarchy upon the Constitution wn of Ireland; he has sceptres and seals for way by a dangerous spirit but I understate it; this ron's, it was to erect, not nperial crown of Ireland, to merge into the British id it from its ambition and he who suggests a contrary hat the annexation of the ent to give the force of law rish Lords and Commons; y the diadem, and to lessen he people—he neglects the gn, and is distracted in his and sceptres, and phantoms; e—but he may be used to he may have accepted of the e authority from which it ame now very warm between the Attorney General, who in reply to each other, and in many instances became dere it pertained to the question, on the same ground as gone members, who rose at diffe-ressed widely from the subject question was repeatedly called put was carried without a diery considerably majority.
 O'BRIEN then left the Chair, med, and the Speaker took the agreed to receive the report of as accordingly reported, and a s appointed for drawing up the which Lord Henry Fitzgerald, Mr. O'Neil, Mr. Conolly, Mr.
 Curran, Mr. Forbes, and Mr. ere members.
 adjourned at THREE o'clock in

THURSDAY, Feb. 12. sibly from the Committee appointed up the Address, to his Royal High-nce of Wales, having presented it, ad, [It is verbatim the same as yesterday by Mr. Connolly and car-the question being put that this now agreed to.
 r. POLE, brother to Lord Morn-o is one of the Lords of the Treasurery, declared he should give his dissent to the address. He threw question that by appointing the Prince Regent without limitation, pensions granted, Peerages might be bestowed, given in reversion in this country to Guen, who have wormed themselves confidence of his Royal Highness. dled up Sir HENRY CAVENDISH, d that every possible argument both for all the address, had already been made ; it the Hon. Gentleman could not dest himself of certain ideas, which ed in Downing-street.

Friday in the House of Lords, the message of the Commons was received, the question was then put for postponing the order of the day, which was the TRIAL OF STRENGTH in the Lords, till Tuesday, when there appeared, Contents 19—Non-Contents, 34. Majority against Administration 15. Adj. to Monday.

SINCE OUR LAST ARRIVED FIVE BRITISH PACKETS.
 LONDON, FEBRUARY 6, 7, 9, 10 & 11.
 KEW PALACE, Feb. 11.

HIS Majesty was yesterday in a state of composure, has had four hours sleep, and is more than usually recollected this morning.

On Saturday his Majesty, with the usual attendants, took an airing upwards of two hours in Kew gardens, and the same evening her Majesty and the Princess Royal visited the King in his apartments for a considerable time longer than heretofore.

It is with uncommon satisfaction we have observed, by the report of the Physicians for some days past, that his Majesty's state of health becomes more and more favourable; and we hope soon to see that moment arrive, when our beloved Sovereign will be perfectly recovered.

His Majesty walks out every day in Kew-gardens, and when he meets the Princesses, converses with them with the most perfect recollection. On Wednesday the King shaved his face, and, what was most difficult, the whole of his head; and appeared as collected as at any time of his life.

Yesterday at four o'clock the Queen was again introduced to his Majesty, where she continued till a quarter before six o'clock.

Saturday the House of Commons, in Committee proceeded in the Regency bill, in which among others, the following clause is introduced, "That if his Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, shall not continue to be resident in Great Britain, or shall at any time marry a Papist, all the authorities vested in his Royal Highness, by virtue of this act, shall cease and determine."— These produced very warm debates, particularly between Mr. Burke, Mr. Pitt, and Lord North; after which the Chairman reported progress, and adjourned to Monday.

As it would be impossible this day to give but a mutilated account of the debates brought by the English mails, we have deferred giving them until our next.

HIGH SHERIFFS, for 1789.
 Co. Antrim, Charles Crymble, Esq;
 Co. Donegal, Wybrants Opherts, Esq;
 Co. Louth, Turner Camac, Esq;
 Co. Tipperary, Daniel Mansergh, Cashel esq; Co. Wexford, William Bolton, Esq,

Saturday the Secretary at War sent in his resignation to his Excellency.

Thursday night this city exhibited a blaze of illumination, in consequence of the resolution passed in the House of Commons, for investing the Prince of Wales with the Sole Regency of this kingdom with ut any restrictions.

The Dorset yacht, though warranted to sail this day, we hear, waits to carry her Excellency the Marchioness of Buckingham, on Saturday next.

DIED. In Waterford, in the 86th year of his age, Richard Shaw, Esq; father of Mr.

The English State Lottery began Drawing this Morning at Guildhall, London; there is only one Club of 100 Guineas at the King's Arms licensed Office near the Exchange, in which any Person may have a Share from two to ten Guineas; the Numbers are,—

No. 6502	29018	38329	41063
6505	32867	40956	41069
6635	32869	40957	41070
6637	32886	40961	21921
6639	32888	40963	21923
21922	32890	40965	21053
21924	38327	41062	32870

The first Day's Drawing of the English State Lottery, will arrive here next Saturday; such persons as wish to have a chance of every prize in the Wheel, will lose no time in purchasing Tickets.
 DIED. Last Friday night, in Barrack-street, Mr.
 Walter Martin, an eminent distiller.

TIMBER.
 To be SOLD on the Lands of BALLYBANE near Charleville, a large Collection of ASH TREES. Proposals will be received by Mrs. GREEN, GRAIGE.
 Feb. 19, 1789.

TO BE LET,
 FOR three Lives or thirty-one Years, from the first of May next, Part of the Estate of the Right Hon. Lord MASSY.
 BALLINAMUDDA containing 239A. 13P. good Fattening, Dairy, or Tillage, with a Farm House, which at a small Expence would be made a good one; a choice Commonage with plenty of Meadowing, Fire, and Water.
 BALLYANA about 230A. of the same Quality and with the same Conveniencies as Ballinamudda.
 KNOCKMA about 250A. choice Dairy, Tillage, or Pasture, with plenty of choice Meadow, Fire and Water.
 CLONMORE about 21A. 25P. all of it as good Fattening or Meadow Ground as any in the County; a strong Farm House, and good Fire and Water.
 All said Lands are situate in the Barony of Coshlea and County of Limerick, convenient to the Markets of Mitchelstown and Tipperary.— No promise of Preference to any Person, but the fairest Bidders and best Tenants will be preferred and declared as soon as the Value is offered.
 Proposals in Writing to be made to the Right Hon. LORD MASSY, or to Mr. NASSAU MASSY, Stagdale-Lodge.—To be continued for one Month only. Tipperary, Feb. 15, 1789.

TO BE LET,
 FROM the 25th of March next, for such Term as shall be agreed upon, the House, Offices, and Garden of WIGHTFIELD. with four Paddocks adjoining, situated within a quarter of a Mile of the City of Limerick; the House and Offices are in excellent repair, and the Garden walled in and well stocked with choice Fruit Trees; remarkable good bearers. Application to be made to Mr. UNTHANK, at Wightfield, who will shew the Concerns; or the Rev. Mr. SEYMOUR, Limerick.
 Feb. 16, 1789.

For BALTIMORE in MARYLAND.
 THE fast sailing SHIP PACA, JAMES STEWART, Master, now lying at the Pool; she is well found and has excellent Accommodations for Passengers, and will positively sail the 20th of March. Wind and Weather permitting. For Freight or Passage apply to the MASTER, at Mrs Moore's, on Merchant's-Quay; or to FISHER and HARVEY.
 Limerick, Feb. 16, 1789.