DEATHS.

At Ashgrove, near Newcastle, Edward Upton, Esq.—a gentleman of the most agreeable manners; he was the poor man's friend, the widow and the orphan's comfort. His loss is deeply deplored by a large circle of friends and relatives.

At her father's house, Gaol-street, Ennis, in the 19th year of her age, Maria, only daughter of T. Whitestone, Esq. of Clondigad.— Thus, in the brief space of four months, has the chastening hand of Providence been heavily laid on this afflicted family, in removing to a better and enduring inheritance, first, the mother, a pattern of Christian virtue and conjugal attachment, and now the only daughter in the spring of life and bloom of beauty. A severe cold added to her filial and unremitting attendance on her parent brought on a rapid decline which eventually removed her to a brighter sphere.

At Stream-Mount, near Limerick, Maria, only daughter of William Arthur, Esq. a very interesting child.

Mr. Bury Hayes, of Cornwallis-street, late musician in the Band of the Limerick City Regiment.

Mr. Andrew Cregan, of Cornwallis-street, classical and mathematical teacher.

At Carmoyhill-cottage, in this County, at an advanced age,
Mr. Cussen.

Friday night, in George-street, aged six months, Thomas, the only son of Stephen Roche, Esq.

Surgeon George R. Melin, 9th Lancers.

At Wilton, near Cork, Captain Kevan Izod Leslie, late of the 60th Regiment. Captain L. had served the greater part of the war in the Peninsula, in the 79th Regiment, and was wounded severely at Burgos. He was in the sanguinary conflict at Quatre Bras, and in the memorable battle of Waterloo.

Redmond M'Adam Barry Rumley, youngest son of William Rumley, Esq. of Langford-row, Cork.

At Cove, in her 19th year, Mrs. Popham, wife of Charles W.
Popham, Commander of the United States ship Washington.

Mrs. C. Sheehan, of Clonmeen, near Kanturk.

In Ellen-street, Mr. James Griffin, spirit-retailer.

Christopher Lawder, of Lowfield, county Roscommon, Esq.

At the Rock, Tralee, at an advanced age, Mr. John Benner, for many years a respectable inhabitant of that town.

At his seat, Hyde Park, county Wexford, John Christopher Beauman, Esq.

At Coote-hill, county Cavan, Thomas Coote, Esq. late Major of the Monaghan Militia.

At Demerara, of fever, Charles Horatia Jones, Esq. youngest son of the late Frederick Edward Jones, Esq. of Clonliffe House, county Dublin.

At Cheltenham, Mr. William Jennings, formerly of Dublin, author of a Treatise on Book-keeping.

At Chelsea-park, the Lady Francis Wright Wilson, sister of the Marquis of Ailesbury.

Of brain fever, in the 16th year of his age, George Augustus, the fourth and youngest son of John Burke, Esq. of St. Michael's Grove, Brompton, author of the Peerage.

Anne, wife of Cooke Tylden Patterson, Esq. Ibornden, Kent, eldest daughter of T. L. Hodges, Esq. M.P. aged 33 years.

At Northbrook House, Hants, Francis, son of Major and Lady Maria Saunderson.

At Northampton, aged 82, John Barrett, Esq. Alderman of that Corporation.

At Paris, Lady Sheridan, wife of Lieut.-General Sir William Sheridan, Bart.
