

to Annie, third daughter of the Venerable William Ryder, Archdeacon of Cloyne, of Ballinterry, county Cork. At Broadford Church, on Tuesday, by the Rev. Thomas French, John Kerin, Esq. Ennis, to Kate, eldest daughter of the late John Bentley, Esq. Kilderry, county Clare.

DEATHS.

At Portarlington, Margaret, widow of Capt. Robert Coote, of the late 15th Hussars.
 At Middleton, Jeremiah O'Donovan, Esq.
 At Ballymakery, near Newcastle, Johanna, the beloved wife of Mr. John Fitzgibbon.
 Mrs. Fogarty, wife of Mr. Cornelius Fogarty, Lisheenatagart, near Thurles.
 At Newcastle, in the 32nd year of her age, Miss Sarah Sullivan.
 At Cathedral Lodge, Georgiana, infant daughter of Mr. Hugh Wrightson, Verger.
 At his residence, Great George's-st. Cork, Mr. Charles Daly.
 At Strabane, county Tyrone, W. Glassco, Esq. Solicitor.
 Jane, widow of the late Edwards Casey, Esq. of Cork.
 At Craunagh, Queen's County, Mr. Daniel Lynch.
 At his residence, Knockinglass, James H. Ryall, Esq.
 At New Ross, Dymphna Ward, daughter of the late George Ward, Esq. Lieutenant of the Royal Marines.
 In Wexford, Mr. William Boxwell, tanner.
 Miller Morrison, Esq. Mount Pleasant, Newtownards.
 In Upper Dorset-street, Margaret, relict of the late Thomas Smith, Esq. of Rowlestown, county Dublin, aged 70.
 In Bath, Christopher Sayers, Esq. late of the 15th Regiment, Deputy Adjutant General of the Island of Ceylon, and son of the late Richard Sayers, Esq. of Greenwood, county Dublin.
 At the residence of his nephew, the Rev. Mr. Stevenson, minister of Coupar Angus, the Rev. Dr. Brunton.
 At Exeter, H. Clay, Esq. of the 3rd Light Dragoons.
 At Heavitree, T. Roper, Esq. late Captain 13th Light Dragoons, Adjutant of the 1st Devon Yeomanry Cavalry.
 At Farnfield, Nottinghamshire, William Houldsworth, Esq. in his 84th year.
 Edward Adams Baddeley, Esq. only son of Capt. C. H. Baddeley, of the East India Company's Service, of Leicester.
 At Old Aberdeen, the Very Rev. Wm. Jack, principal of King's College there, aged 85.
 At Higher Broughton, the Rev. Oswald Serjeant, M.A. Canon of Manchester.
 The Rev. Augustus Wm. Cole, Perpetual Curate of Luncliffe, Yorkshire.
 At New York, Mr. James Barry, of Killarney.
 At Geelong, Port Philip, Dorothea, wife of Mr. George Evans, late of Rutland-street, Limerick.
 At Sydney, N.S.W. Colonel Kennett Snodgrass.
 At Rathgar, Mrs. Sarah Savage, widow of the late Rev. Henry Savage, aged 84 years.
 At Navan, John Roberts, Esq. manager of the Bank in that town.
 At Weetbourne-grove, Lieut.-Colonel John Gray Ross, late of the 1st Royal Veteran Battalion, aged 83.
 Sir Everard Home, Bart. in command of the Calliops, 26, in Australia.

* As some persons see "School" with horror, or giving food to starving selytisers, I refer them notice, viz.—the announcement in Dublin, September 4th, "the Ragged Schools," with Most Rev. Dr. Cullen, Henry J. Rorke, S.J., another appeal for the support of Dr. Marshall." In the paper appears:—"Of these schools in Dublin, four Sunday schools three thousand of the number afforded a sound moral position; in addition to these, many hours, and those who...

WRECK

TO be Sold by Auction, at SEVEN O'CLOCK, on WEDNESDAY, the 18th inst., of the Schooner Fort, Coppered and Coppered and Coppered stranded; together with Anchors, Sails, Chains, the Cargo saved, about 1000 Coals, new Anchors &c. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock. For further particulars apply to the Receiver Droits Ad Valorem, MULLOCK, Esq. Port of Dublin. Purchasers to pay...

Feb. 18.

STO
 ANGE
 NEAR THE FO
 JOH
 For Cleanliness, Co
 it is
 A Night