

gheda, on Monday, resign his seat in politics. Surely it lders of the Dublin elected Member for se of Commons on ronounced sentence, Thomas Fuller, son of ng's County, with e Postmaster of the ties were both under n for trial on this Rev. Mr. Bunbury, Charleville, a Magisined £400 in the enue laws.

the Rev. W. Bun- a writ of assistance the process against and thirteen other of the reign of one ly found in the anti-

he city Cork Record

Civil Engineer, on nents in the county ssizes, Ennis, shall day next.

Connell, of Tralee, nsideration of which a of physician to the who it appears did a Catholic Clergy of have entered into a John Barrett, P.P. of as suffered through Castlebar, when the hat John Fitzgerald gunshot wound given he discharge of his this Paper.

of his own Church, and this is the only cause assigned for the murder.

An address to Mr. Bland, late High Sheriff of Kerry, is in course of signature, for having refused to call a county meeting to address Lord Mulgrave.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—FEB. 19.

Bank Stock,	213
Irish Three per cent Consols	90½
Government Stock, 3½ per Cent.	98½
Government (New), 3½ per cent.	98½

DEATHS.

At Grenville-street, Dublin, Jane, relict of the late James Griffith, Esq. of that city.

In North Cumberland-street, Dublin, the Rev. John Barker, for many years Chaplain of St. George's church.

In Capel-street, Dublin, Catherine, wife of Mr. Michael O'Sullivan, formerly of New-row on the Poddle.

At Patrick's-hill, Cork, Miss Elizabeth Westropp, universally esteemed and respected.

In Kilkenny, aged 84 years, Dr. George Borthwick, formerly surgeon in the 14th Light Dragoons.

At Clonteens, Kerry, at a very advanced age, Daniel Darby Cronin, Esq. many years High constable of the barony of Magonihy.

In Ringsend, Mrs. Walsh.

In Corofin, Mr. John Macnamara.

Mr. William O'Brien, father of the Rev. Cornelius O'Briens, Roman Catholic Curate of Roscrea.

In Harcourt-street, Dublin, Dorothy, wife of the Rev. Sir Samuel Synge Hutchinson, Bart.

At Rosclare, county Wexford, Alice, wife of John Delany, at the advanced age of 111 years.

Maria, eldest daughter of Joshua Gill, Esq. of Ballinasloe.

Mr. Patt Devitt, of Galway, merchant-tailor.

At Belfast, aged 96 years, William Colgin, who, in the year 1777, had enlisted in the 14th Regiment, and went with his corps to the West Indies.

In Denmark-street, Mr. Southerwood.

At Stream-Mount, near Limerick, Maria, only daughter of William Arthur, Esq. a very interesting child.

At Windy Arbour, county Dublin, Mary, the wife of Matthew Harrison, in her 57th year.

At the King's Arms Hotel, Derry, where he had arrived but a few days previously, William Crossley, Esq. a Magistrate for the counties of Londonderry and Antrim, and Sub-Inspector of Constabulary for the county Londonderry.

In New-street, Spring-gardens, Frances, relict of T. W. Carr, Esq.

In Grosvenor-place, the Lady of Dr. Hunter.

At Hackney, Thomas Warburton, Esq.

At Clapham, aged 90, John Gillies, LL.D. F.R.S. &c.

At Northbrook House, Hants, Francis Ferdinand De Luttrell, son of Major and Lady Maria Saunderson.

At Wisbech, in his 72d year, Alexander Fraser, Esq. M.D.

At Duporth House, Cornwall, William Pattison, Esq. aged 71, of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

At West Leke, Nottinghamshire, aged 80, the Rev. George Holcombe, D.D. Prebendary of Westminster.

Anne Rebecca, the wife of C. T. Patterson, Esq. of Iborden, Kent.

Mrs. Nicholls, of the Edinburgh Theatre.

At Penzance, Susanna, relict of Admiral John Peyton.

In Upper Canada, Captain John Shea, formerly of the 27th or Enniskillen Regiment.

Near Oxford, in Upper Canada, Elizabeth Catherine, only daughter of Major Holcroft, of the Royal Artillery.

FOR QUEEN the beaut "BREEZE," now in port, and wind and weather. The Breeze will in a comfortable manner laid in for the V which have often Her superiority proved in the past many advantages. The many losses and Inferior V should be partial trifling advance. The BRYAN GORMAN, a fine and Montreal, a brig, the THET about the 8th of These Ships are ordered to pay Passengers who a desirable convey Emigrate. As time, an early SPAIGHT, at MULLOCK and all persons having Lands of George of Limerick, Esq and all other Cre before me, on or their said debts, Order.

In the matter of Hamo Massy Minors

Dated this 8th Delmege and street, Dublin.