

resolutions of the 7th inst. attend the meeting of the Notice had been given, and expression to his views on going forward as he now does

Feb. 20.

KILLALOE RAILWAY.

LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

In the last number of your "VIATOR," being a compilation of resolutions passed at a late meeting of the Limerick, Ennis, and Killaloe Railway, I make a few observations. The Resume, is furnished with the Minutes, and other documents of the Company, with the Resolutions not usual; in the present emergency reasonable they should be in their legal position, and a small provocation to stimulate their doing so.

Of the number of scrip constituted the meeting, and any single name identified company. The particular parties I know not, but the resolutions have been read and intelligent persons, holders of scrip, and many of the company from the time of

Of course the Directors should be satisfied I distinctly repudiate. I would regret their being so. In our resolutions we speak, if practicable, and we speak of accounts and management, of parties holding a position of authority; the other matter concerning solely relative to advertising in the present circumstances of performing of acts illegal.

A matter of little moment, Scotland; if he means the matter stated in the resolutions) relative to that established by truth, which I am in possession of information I obtained

In framing the resolutions so many intelligent subscribers wished to avoid giving offence, I regret VIATOR was not so feeling.

From the source which it emanated, (in Clare,) it had the gentleman affixed writing under the garb of

Obedient servant,
W. RUSSELL.

Ben Barter, Esq. to Henrietta, daughter of John Read, Esq. of Berehaven.
George Fuller, Esq. of Bandon, to Miss Elkins.
Henry Sargent, Esq. of Waterford, to the Widow Morris.

DEATHS.

Last evening, at his residence, Shanagolden House, after a long life of pastoral duty in the Church, and of benevolent communion with all classes of Christians, the Rev. George Vincent.—A most affectionate parent and relative, and the best of friends and neighbours. By all who knew his social and domestic virtues, his guileless simplicity of character, and pure kindness of heart, the death of this truly good Clergyman will be long and deeply lamented. In the extensive district of Shanagolden the sad event is deplored as a bereavement in which almost every family participates.

At his residence, Great Charles-street, Dublin, Theobald Patterson, Esq. late Captain Royal Marines, and nephew of the late Sir John O'Flahertie, of Lemonfield, county Galway.

At Mountpleasant, aged 15 years, Francis George Martyn, eldest son of Gregory Martyn, Esq. of Cregans, county Clare.

William Watkins Synge, son of Hodder Wm. Roberts, Esq. At Coolihane, county Cork, Mrs. Richard Ashe.

On Saturday, the Rev. Edward Magrath, P.P. Silvermines. At his seat, Old Court, county Wicklow, James Kynaston Edwards, Esq. formerly Major in the Wicklow Militia.

At Cregg Castle, Frances, daughter of Francis Blake, Esq. Mr. Patrick Hehir, of Robert-street, Victualler.

In Belfast, Ada, daughter of Mr. J. Strachan, Provincial Bank.

In Dingle, of decline, aged nineteen, Mr. Patrick Shea, brother of Mr. Andrew Shea, bookseller and stationer, Tralee.

At Tramore, Mr. James Morrison, of Waterford.

At Athlone, Thomas, second son of P. Fallon, Esq. Clonmel.

At Milfall, county Kilkenny, Robert Philips, Esq. in the 70th year of his age.

At Annville, Cullenswood, John Lumsden, Esq. Helena Mary, infant daughter of Sir Edward M'Donnell.

At Rathmines, aged 80 years, Mrs. Margaret Morgan, widow of Mr. Francis Morgan, late of Shank-hill, county Dublin.

At Lisbree, near Longford, Robert Conry, Esq. J.P. and for some years a Captain in the army.

At Percy-place, William Richardson, Esq. son of the Rev. John Richardson, Summer-hill House, county Fermanagh.

At Celbridge, the wife of John Boyle, Esq. At his residence, Upper Leeson-street, Lloyd Henry O'Reilly, Esq.

At Hardwicke-street, Charles Frederick Stewart, Esq. At Hensington House, Oxfordshire, Margaret Mary, wife of George W. Bacon, Esq. daughter and co-heiress of the late Robert Ashworth, Esq. formerly of Merrion-square, Dublin.

At Swynnerton, Staffordshire, the Rev. Richard Cotton Walker, formerly of Upper Gloucester-street, Dublin, Barrister-at-Law.

At his house in Bryanston-square, George Miller, Esq. At Hardingstone, Northamptonshire, Lannoy H. Forbes, Esq. In London, General Robert Dudley Blake. He entered the Army in 1793. He never had a Regiment.

In Cromer-street, Mr. Thomas Duffield. At Brentford-bridge, Captain Simeon Hirst, formerly of the Royal Horse Guards.

At Nancy, pres Paris, Madame Browne, Religieuse de Secréleur de Jésus, formerly of this City.

At Tunbridge-wells, Rear Admiral Sir Gordon Bremer, K.C.B., K.C.H.

At Gogmagog-hills, Cambridge, Francis Baron Godolphin. Samuel Dennis, Esq. Hornsey, and of the Bank of England.

At Croydon, John Farley, Esq. In Bristol, Richard Lowe, Esq. an eminent physician.

At Nairn, Major Thomas Reid, late of 33rd Regt. At Lisbon, in the 33d year of his age, Timothy J. Lane, Esq. barrister-at-law, and son of Mrs. Hayes O'Connor, of this City.

At St. Charles, C.E. at the age of 76, Margaret Nugent, wife of Mr. Charles Nugent, of Killankere, county Cavan.

At Albany, Ellen Watson, wife of F. Horatio Wyse, of Quebec.

At the Manor House, Nicolet, Kenebec Connor Chandler, Esq. Lieut.-Colonel commanding the 1st division of Militia. Mr. Chandler was formerly Captain in 60th Regiment. He was Barrack Master of Quebec from 1809 till 1819.

The Rev. Alexander Ross, Rector of Banagher, and Vicar of Dungiven, diocese of Derry.

At Rockfort, the Rev. Michael Rowan, P.P. Miltown and Miden.

John Lenahan, Esq. of Irishtown, near Palmerstown, county Dublin, in his 70th year.

part of the Lands of LE of Athenry, and County possession of Patrick S Dated this 15th day

All persons intending requested to give notice of in this cause, and matter the day of letting, as to said lands, will not be rity by recognizance, but a lease according to the

The above lands are s town of Ballinasloe, an prime meadow and fatter

For further particulars the Receiver, Ennis; or 22, Leeson-st. Dublin.

In C
George O'Callaghan,
Plaintiff
The Reverend Edward Singleton Abbott, Mar Christiana Abbott, Martha Anne Abbott, John Callaghan, and John O'Callaghan, Defendants

The above Lands are Newmarket-on-Fergus.

For further particulars MICHAEL KERIN, the R LIAM HENRY M'GRATH, whom Proposals must be 12th of March next.

Dated this 19th Febr

COUNTY T
18 CHAN
IN L
In the matter Warren George Mangin, A Lunatic.

will receive proposals for t Those the Lands of BA 81a. 2r. 34p. Irish Plant Grass land, situate on the and within one mile of the term of 21 years.

Mishael Bourke, of Gar lands, will show them, The Tenant will be requ For Particulars apply to Sherrard, Esq. 88, Upp Messrs. Mortimer and T 116, Grafton-street, Dubli posals, in writing, will be