The Limerick Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21.

Yesterday, the Sheriff of this City received the Prece or holding the Assizes on Wednesday, the 14th of Ma ext. Judges, the Right Hon. the Lord Chief J nd the Hon. Justice Torrens.

The number of Prisoners for trial in the Cou this morning, is 171, exceeding by 80 the numl corresponding day of last year.

A large sail-boat, the property of George Ho of Donagrove Castle, Esq. was maliciously burne Leshedda, County Clare, on Sunday evening. The incendiary outrage is attributable to the spirit of party and anship which disgraces that part of the country.

James Kennedy, charged with an aggravated assau on a male in this City, was arrested on Monday, on hi way to Cork, by Constable Clancy, of the Kilmallock Police.

Yesterday, an inquisition was held by the Mag Coroner, at Ballyvarra, in the Liberties of this City, on the body of Ann Casey, a young servant woman, when it appeared in evidence that she “voluntarily herself,” in a dairy house, on the previous morning.

An Inquest was held on the 11th inst. at Bally Tralee, on the body of Mr. Godfrey Leonard, fore a Barony Constable, who was found dead on the lands Ballylingan, County Kerry, and a verdict returned—“Died by the visitation of God.”

A reward exceeding 100*l.* has been offered by Lord Shannon and other landholders of the County Cork, for apprehending and convicting the ruffians who committed a desperate burglary and robbery at Timoleague, a few nights since.

Five fellows, John Greene, Thomas Brien, James Byrne, Michael Kelly and John Byrne, have been arrested in the County Tipperary, for the recent barbarous murder of Mr. John Barry, of Grange.

The Earl of Droghmore is so indignant at the recent barbarous murder of Mr. Barry, one of his most respectable tenants, that he has expressed his determination to give up the household at Knocklofty, if the Country cannot bring the guilty to justice—considering it as an indelible disgrace if discovery cannot be made.

On Sunday night, a woman of the town was taken to the Watch-house of St. Michael's Parish, charged with robbing a man named James Boyse, of 7*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* On making a search the money was found in her possession, and returned to the owner by the Constable of the Watch.

John Stephenson Henry, Steward to John Hamilton, Esq. of Grove, County Meath, was fired at in his room, a few nights ago, by some assassin, and shot in the arm.

Mr. Andrew Lothian, of the Drogheda distillery, was crushed to death in the machine of the steam-engine of that establishment, on Monday.

The Earl of Kenmare had a narrow escape a few days ago, of a very serious injury. While visiting one of his tenants in the Country, his horse became frightened, reared, and fell upon his Lordship. We are happy to say, this Nobleman sustained no material injury.

The Pyramus frigate has sailed from Malta with the 85th Regiment on board for Gibraltar.

On Thursday last, one squadron of the 1st (King's) Dragoon Guards marched from Leeds for Berwick.

On same day, three troops of the 9th Lancers marched from Glasgow for Carlisle, where disturbances have appeared.

Captain Fitz-Gerald, and Lieutenants Collins and Cruice, with a division of the 58th Regiment, are stationed at Phillipstown.
