

...y measure.
 ...e Irish Bar have got up an
 ...Four Courts, and the first
 ...efather.
 ...isions in the Customs Acts
 ...s made a punishment for
 ...nd Clonfert has appointed
 ...his Lordship's Domestic
 ...receptor of Kildare, and
 ...is unanimously elected by
 ...athedral.
 ...St. Michael's Parish, and
 ...e to attend the consecration
 ...olic Archbishop of Cashel,
 ...led at a numerous and most
 ...s of the Church establish-
 ...ir firm and decided attach-
 ...ships, by far, that has ever
 ...wn last week in the building
 ...and sons, Belfast. She is
 ...and Jury of Clare will have
 ...et a most desirable local im-
 ...a Sessions-House and Bride-
 ...aloe, and to hold Quarter
 ...ix-mile-Bridge.
 ...l at Tralee Assizes, includ-
 ...venty millions sterling to the
 ...ble from 1st of August next.
 ...Askeaton, John Chambers,
 ...on Wednesday, when the
 ...and lay proprietors were
 ...ion of those preferred in the ...Greaves, Robertstown and
 ...gan, Esq. Danmoylan, to
 ...tered for over charge, and
 ...the Court from the amount
 ...th port last year was 140
 ...with the Dungarvan elec...arron resigned the office of ...aterford, in order to qualify
 ...f the Senate.
 ...barrel was lit on the top of
 ...of triumph for Mr. Sheil's
 ...e of having been the traitor
 ...seen blazing on every emi-
 ...e country.
 ...in Dunsalk, on Sunday,
 ...ed the Dublin Pilot News-
 ...Repeal, was passed by the ...official notice of this circum-
 ...mother and son, from the
 ...committed to Roscommon
 ...Moran, whom they killed
 ...a beetle, for the paltry con-
 ...d them!
 ...res against the Mayo Tele-
 ...0.
 ...y fleece is now a common
 ...marauders, and with such

Thomas Hamilton, Esq. brother of Sir Wm. Hamilton, of Preston, Bart. to Lady Townsend Farquhar, widow of Sir Robert T. Farquhar, late Governor of the Mauritius.

DEATHS.

At Rathkeale, after a premature confinement, occasioned by fright, Anne, the wife of Dr. Cussen.
 At Green-park, Youghal, Richard Theophilus Hastings, third son of Captain and Lady Frances Parker, and nephew of the Earl of Huntingdon.
 At Crover, county Cavan, after a few hours' illness, and giving birth to a still-born child, Maria, wife of Captain Henry Keating, late 41st Madrass Native Infantry.
 In Belfast, aged 42 years, Captain Loftus Nunn, on the unattached half-pay, formerly of his Majesty's 31st Regt.
 On Merchant's-quay, in advanced age, Mrs. Parker, widow of the late Mr. James Parker, of this City.
 Thomas, son of Peter Bayly, Esq. of Rathmines.
 At her house, Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, Miss Wilson, aged 75 years.
 At South Great George's-street, Dublin, Mr. Thomas
 Cole, aged 64 years.
 At Ballymena, Sarah Jane, wife of Clotworthy Walkingsshaw, Esq. and daughter of the late James Hemphill, of Flowerfield, near Coleraine, Esq.
 Mrs. O'Grady, relict of the late Richard O'Grady, of Tavrán, Mayo, Esq.
 At Armagh, Elizabeth, wife of J. Magee, Esq. Coroner of that county.
 In Borrisokane, aged 70 years, Bridget, relict of John Egan, Esq. many years an eminent Solicitor in Dublin.
 At Camberwell, near London, Georgina Sarah, youngest daughter of Captain Croker, Royal Navy, of Thornbury, in the Queen's County.
 Tuesday, Laurence Marshall, Esq. of Timoline, in this County.
 At Roscrea, at the house of her brother-in-law, Mr.
 Moses Woods, after a few hours illness, of cholera, Miss Anne Jones, youngest daughter of the late Mr. Samuel Jones, of Killaloe.
 At Mayfield, Cork, in his 70th year, Martin Mahony, Esq.
 one of the first and most extensive woollen manufacturers in the South of Ireland, before that branch of trade had disappeared from the country. Charitable, humane and benevolent, in every act of his life, Mr. Mahony was likewise possessed of the strictest honor and integrity.
 At Woodford, near Mullingar, Mrs. Catherine Nugent, lady of Walter Nugent, Esq. Royal Canal Harbour, and daughter of Cooke Reynell, Esq.
 In London, aged 37 years, Henry Barry, Esq. of the Hon. Society of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-law.
 At Paris, Mrs. Mary Sandiford, widow of the late Major Wm. Thomas Sandiford, formerly of the East India Company's service, on the Bombay establishment.
 In London, John Bennett, Esq. the Secretary to Lloyd's, who for a period of forty years has been connected with that establishment.
 At Dorking, Surrey, John Thompson, Esq. formerly of Lower Ormond-quay, Dublin.
 At Norfolk-crescent, Bath, Mrs. Coane, relict of the late Conolly Coane, Esq.
 In Chester, aged 91 years, Mrs. Finchett, mother of John Finchett Maddock, Esq. the Town-Clerk of that city.
 Washed overboard during a severe storm, on his passage from Calcutta, where he had resided for seven years, James Hume Cunningham, Esq. aged 24, second son of the late Captain George Cunningham, and nephew to Colonel Cunningham, of the Royal Engineers.

10 GAME-KEEPER.
 A GAME KEEPER

ADAMS, London, with Application to Mr. DAY
 Street.

A MOST DESIRABLE TO I
FROM 25th March, or and Concerns in H
EDMOND SCULLY, Esq. a tains one large Dining Par Bed-Rooms, and servants'
 diate reception of a resp
 Coach Houses, Stables, a Office. If more pleasing of this House with Garder offices would be let, and certain would be given without this addition. It blishment or Factory, being river adjoining the field.
 Furniture would be given previous to the 1st of May

TO I
FROM THE FI
For such Term
THE following LAND
FRIEND, Esq.:—
 The CASTLE and DI
 taining 70 Acres plantatio
 a half of this City.
 Also, about 20 Acre
 Drombanny and Rutha.
 Proposals in writing
 received by BENJAM
COPPINGER, Esqrs.
 None but really solve mise of preference has or
 A Large Quantity of E
 Castle in Parcels not less

COUNTY
HOUSE
TO I
AND IMMEDIATE
FROM the 25th of M be agreed on, the BAR
 (as lately held by Mr. Jo over the River Fergus, v trading village of Clare, demesne contains about of the finest description of Garden, Offices, &c. attac
 Proposals to be addre
 10, Duke-street, St. Jame
 Or to Mr. JAMES O'SE
 Limerick, who is authori
 as soon as the value is o Tenants on the estate an balances.

PAPER HANGI
ST. DOMINICK-STRE
LIM
BERNAL
MOST respectfully
 Gentry of this C