

Richard Binney, William

ORPHAN SOCIETY.—This
the past year, not only in compliance with the upon the Divine com-employ the machinery the children in the way they ce, moral instruments of trated power in this admi-
have a Bible, prayer-book, strict visiting, missionary, ies. Here is afforded an and laity to-operate in the charity there is abundant labours of that sex whose ce, when animated by the is a mighty agent in the our rugged race. In the children, not in boarding d, but in the families of ers, all the precious ties of l together again with the t bonds; while the moral, are alike strengthened and ble that this is also the expensive staff of officers to erected or repaired; in the immediate objects of and such is the economy exertions of the wise and sexes that the average rate including all expenses of ads. The appearance of all oath day's journey of the -morrow week that their are such as if universally eloved fellow-countrymen to neatest and most comforta-ichan's, Dublin, the Rev. C.
to the Curates officiating
s that he is about to nomi-their room.
ell Hedges Eyre presided at the Dublin Protestant opera-ew will preach at Tipperary the pledge.
Mr. Coen, and Rev. Mr. priests by the Right Rev.
d. Mr. Mooney for the diooen for Edinburgh.
Kilkee, requests us to state rooms are 60 by 30 feet each, attend for instruction.

the Rev. D. Wilson, Presbyterian Minister, of this City, to Jane, eldest daughter of William M'Ferran, Esq. Cogry House.

At Killyman Church, George Stewart, Esq. of Belfast, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late David Scott, Esq. of Dublin.

At Carron-hall, Stirling, Lieut.-Colonel Armine S. H. Mountain, C.B. of the 26th Cameronians, to Charlotte Anna, eldest daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Dundas.

Montgomery Armstrong, Esq. of Innishmore, Lough Erne, to Sarah, daughter of John Buchanan, Esq. Bunnynumber, Omagh.

At Woodbury, near Exeter, Captain A. R. Wilson, 14th Regiment, B.N.I. to Anna Saunders, eldest daughter of the late Captain W. R. Smith, R.N.

In Bryansford Church, county of Down, Captain De Courcy, Inspecting Commander of the Coast Guard, to Sibella, daughter of Captain Morris, R.N. of the Barbican Cottage.

DEATHS.

At Rattoo House, Kerry, the residence of her uncle, John Creagh, Esq. Ellen, eldest daughter of the Rev. John Kerin, Perpetual Curate of Ardfert.

On Tuesday, at Greenville, county of Kilkenny, Ellen Maria, the beloved wife of Godfrey J. Greene, Esq. leaving a disconsolate husband and a large young family to deplore her loss.

In Rathkeale, Mr. Peter Laurence, hotel-keeper, deservedly regretted by his numerous friends and acquaintances.

At the Cove of Cork, of consumption, Clara Maria, wife of Lieut. Baines, Paymaster, Depot 95th Regiment.

At Adelaide-place, Cork, Charles Perry, Esq. in the 70th year of his age.

At Baltigarron House, John Hilliard, Esq. J.P. co. Kerry.
In Galway, Mr. J. Eardly, tide-waiter.

The wife of Mr. John Crosbie, grocer, of Tralee.
Mr. James O'Carroll, of Tralee.

At Abbeyville, Clonmel, in the 20th year of his age, Thomas Maunsell Hawkshaw, Esq. nephew of the Rev. Richard Maunsell, Rector of Innistonagh.

Mr. John Creane, Clonmel.
The Rev. Patrick Walsh, parish priest of Ballycullen, aged 70 years.

At Coote-hill, of fever, Eliza Maria, only child of William Coote, Esq. M.D. Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland.

At her residence, Mountpleasant-square, Mrs. Judith Hickey, aged 80 years.

At Sallymonnt, county Westmeath, Bridget, relict of Matthew Coates, Esq. of Knockanally, county Kildare.

John De Verd Leigh, Esq. M.B. Army Medical Staff, formerly 53d Regiment.

At Chal-farm, Kent, General Henry Williams, in the eightieth year of his age.

At Southern-hill, Reading, Thomas Willimot, Esq. in his 79th year, formerly Collector of her Majesty's Customs, London.

The Rev. George Walker, Rector of Scole, Norfolk.
In Bloomsbury-place, Thomas John Davis, Esq. Secretary to the National Benevolent Institution.

At Ridgmont, Lancashire, John Donthwaite Nesham, Esq.
Barrister-at-Law, of the Inner Temple.

At Birmingham, George Edward Pemberton, Esq.
At St. Petersburg, Admiral Greig.

At Tabrez, Mrs. Bonham, wife of the British Consul, and niece of Sir Robert Peel.

Mrs. Vance, wife of James Vance, Esq. Solicitor, Cuffestreet, Dublin.

Letitia, eldest daughter of Thomas Stratford Eyre, Esq. of Eyreville, county of Galway,

The Rev. J. Croak, P.P. of Anacarty and Donohill.
James Bischoff, Esq. of Leeds.

At Quebec, Mr. Pinkerton, ship chandler, native of Belfast.
At Toronto, Mr. Peter Nangle and Mr. John Garvey.

At Montreal, Mr. J. Johnson, ship builder.

2d Month 12th.

AD
FOR

The splendid first

JAN

BURTHEN, PE

T. GORM

Will Sail about the 4

THIS fine Ship was Trade, and possi-grants can look for, h great height between passengers will be fitt also the second cabin to afford admirable ac
the State cabin for cal able as usual. The S dant supply of fuel and quantity of good prov ment.

An early applicatio

FRANC

At his Offices,

Or, to Messrs Mulloc
street: For Kerry, M
Ennis, Mr. Lott Ha
Lewis; For Cloughjor
Killaloe, Mr. John Ke

CH

Richard Hungerfo
Plaintiff.

The Rev. Thomas O
John Iago, and his wife, and others, Defendants.

county of Cork, Esq pleadings named, and charges, and incumb
the said testator, to c on the Inn's-quay, in the 15th day of April same and claim their precluded from the be Dated this 12th day

JAMES WORRALL,
moreland-street, Dub