performance last night should go to-night. His movements are characterised by remarkable grace, and he has quite an inexhaustible stock of feats at hand. Amongst others he performed the most difficult feat ever done on rollers by mounting a running wheel and propelling it backwards and forwards while wearing skates, and we understand he offers £50 to any of our local expert skaters who can succeed in doing it To-night he will judge and present two gold medals for the best two-step partners.

On Monday next a grand dance will take place at the Rink, 9.30 p.m. to 3 a.m. This will be the last dance of the season, and with a magnificent floor, and best of music, we hope it will be a huge success.

FUNERAL OF MR. NEAL GALLAGHER.

The funeral of Mr. Neal Gallagher, whose death occurred at his residence, Inglewood Villas, Thomondgate, on Tuesday, took place on Thursday from St. Munchin's R.C. Church to Mount St.
Lawrence. Despite the inclemency of the weather the funeral was very large and representative, and demonstrated the regard the late Mr. Gallagher was held in and the sympathy extended to his family.

The chief mourners were—Edward Gallagher, and Kevin Gallagher, sons; and P. V. McCoy and Maurice Fitzgerald, brothers-in-law.

Attending the funeral were representatives of
