On Saturday evening, to the inexpressible regret of his family and numerous acquaintance—Robert Martin, Esq. of Tulligreen, County Cork; language could but inadequately express the philanthropic qualities of this regretted gentleman's mind: the poor have indeed lost in him, a kind friend and ready benefactor. His short but severe illness, he bore with a submission and resignation which religion alone is capable of imparting, and died rejoicing in the hope of the Gospel.

On Tuesday, of fever, aged 19 years, George, third son of Samuel Bradshaw, of Kilbeg, near Tipperary. He was a young man of amiable manners and disposition, and whose memory will be long cherished by those who knew him. For several days he was well aware of the near approach of his dissolution, and it is a consolation to his afflicted family and friends to know that he enjoyed a blessed hope of a glorious immortality.
