

Diadem, Coegrave, with cotton, from Bombay to put into Cove on Monday.
greater part of Blackrock Castle, near Cork, was ed yesterday morning by a most destructive fire.
Treasurer of the Limerick Dispensary having ed a letter to the Marquess of Lansdowne, on the the funds of that Charity, was yesterday favored e following reply from his Lordship:—

London, February 24, 1827.

—Under the circumstances you state, I shall cersubscribe £10 for the relief of the debt on the ary at Limerick, without reference to my annual tion, which I shall continue as heretofore.

so good as to hand this Letter to my Agent, Mr.
Harvey, as it will be a sufficient authority to him
; and, being much engaged, I have not time to in on the subject.

"Your obedient Servant.

"LANSDOWNE."

Piercy, Esq. Limerick.

Piercy, Esq. Treasurer to the City Dispensary. ledges the receipt of 10*l.* from the Marquess of wne, per J. M. Harvey, Esq.

Treasurer of the Lying-in Hospital has received of that Institution the following donations, upon n of the Charity Ball on Friday last.—From Lord
1*l.*; the High Sheriff, 1*l.*; T. Lloyd, Esq. M. P.
T. Waller, Esq. 1*l.*; J. B. Massy, Esq. (late Sheriff,) 1*l.*

se of our readers who delight in equestrian amusewill perceive (vide advertisement) that there is a r assortment of English Saddle Trees, Harness, BULL'S, Patrick-street.

best and cheapest SPORTING NEWSPAPER extant is LIFE IN LONDON. A large folio, twenty column Journal published in London every Saturday on, in time for that Day's Post, and may be d at the distance of Two Hundred Miles from a on Sunday. This Paper combines with the of the work, a rich repository of Fashion, Wit, ar, and other interesting Incidents of Real Life, ents in the Sporting Department are copiously dend for Accuracy stand unrivalled. The emble-Illustrations which head the Articles on the Poetry, the Turf, the Chase, the Ring the
and the affairs of the Faculty are all designed by orks, in his most humorous and happy manner.
ats alone are worth more than the price of this aper, which is only Seven pence. The average Bell's Life in London, and Sporting Chronicle
s Ten thousand; the largest Sale of any London Journal, except the Observer.

DEATHS

Hollypark, the Lady of Richard Taylor, Esq. of nter.

his seat, Hazlewood, County Clare, the Lady of Singleton, Esq. of a daughter.

Monday last, at Edwardstown, the Lady of Jerehine, Esq. of a son.

Dublin, the Lady of Major Kennedy Clarke, 7th
on Guards, of a daughter.

ervis-street, Dublin, the Lady of Doctor Finn, of ghter.

Castlereagh, the Lady of the Rev. William Baker of a daughter.

Waterford, the Lady of W. Clarke, Esq. of a son.

Dublin, the Lady of the Rev. Luke M'Donnell, n.

Castle Boro', the Lady of Robert Shapland Carew,
M. P. of a son.

morning, the Lady of Robert Ingram, Esq. of a ter.

Lady of Hans White, Esq. of Coolnagower,
County, of a son and heir.

Cork, the Lady of John Wrixon, Esq. of a ter.

Trafalgar, Cork, the Lady of the Rev. Thomas nt, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

the 26th instant, at Moynalty Church, by the Arch-
of Meath, the Rev. George Spaight, of Cavan, of the late William Spaight, of Corbally, Co. Clare, Anne, elder daughter of Philip Smith, of Cherry-
Co. Meath, Esq.
Michan's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Edward

DEATHS.

In George's-street, on Sunday morning, Edward, youngest son of Mr. James Hill, a very interesting child.
In Wexford, James Goolall, of NewCourt, Esq.

Thursday morning, at Mallow, aged 82 years, Eliza, relict of the late John Smith, Esq. and mother to Alderman Smith Fleming, of Dublin, and Arthur Smith Fleming, of Mount-Anngrove, in the County Waterford, Esq.

At the Presentation Convent, Tralee, of a decline,
Miss Margaret Ryan, of that Order.

At Finuge, County Kerry, at an advanced age, Mrs.
Hewson, wife of Maurice Hewson, Esq.

In Dublin, the relict of the late Henry Coddington, of Old Bridge, County Meath, Esq.

Mr. Richard Dunphy, of Ballybricken, in the County of Waterford, Inspector of Markets.

In Waterford, Mary, daughter of Mr. Martin Boggan.
At Glasheen, Mr. Timothy O'Herlihy.

In Stephen's-Green, Dublin, aged eight years, Johnstone, son of William Farrell, Esq.

Catherine Mary, daughter of Mr. Thomas Spencer, of South Anne-street, Dublin.

In Clanbrassil-street, Dublin, Mary, relict of Richard Sidley, Esq. formerly of the 12th Royal Lancers.

At Rathcoole, Mrs. Margaret Spear.

On Thursday morning last, at Kilmore, County Kerry, in the 47th year of his age, much regretted, William Mason, Esq. Mr. Mason had formerly been an Officer in the Army, and had seen much hard service in Holland and other parts of the Continent, during the late war.—
He died of fever, after a few days illness.

Mr. John Smith, of William-street, Dublin.

At Paris, aged 13 years, Marian Jane, daughter of William Lewery, of the County Louth, Esq.

In Dundalk, in the 80th year of her age, Elizabeth, relict of the late Gerald Byrne, of Prospect, Esq.

The 5th instant, at St. Omer, in the 15th year of his age, from the accidental discharge of his gun, Thomas Hawkins Goold, son of H. Goold, Esq.

At Clandon, near Guildford, the Earl of Onslow.

At Carrigrohane, County Cork, Wm. Dunscombe, Esq.
Anne, daughter of Mr. John Hodnett, of Crookhaven.

At his father's house in Cork, Henry, eldest son of Captain H. Wrixon, late 16th Lancers.

At Madras, Lieutenant-Colonel Swayne.

At Yarmouth, after a short illness, in the 46th year of his age, the Rev. Sterling Keely, M. A. one of the Senior Fellows of King's College, Cambridge.

The Rev. William Harrison, M. A. Vicar of Winter-ton, and of Great Limber, both in Lincolnshire.

In his last year, after a long and painful illness, the Rev. P. Cooper, Vicar of All Saints' and St. Lawrence, Eveham, Worcestershire, and Perpetual Curate of Hampton, in the same county.

At Harden Grange, Yorkshire, Catherine Maria, wife of Walker Ferrard, Esq. and only child of General Twiss, of the Royal Engineers.

At Studley Priory, aged ten years, Le Blount Croke, fourth son of Sir Alexander and Lady Croker.

At Naples, after a few days' illness, Lady Emily Montagu, youngest daughter of the Duke of Manchester.

In Londonderry, on the 14th inst. in the 40th year of her age, at the residence of her uncle, the Right Rev.
Doctor M'Laughlin, Roman Catholic Bishop of Derry, Miss Catherine M'Laughlin.

In Connaught-square, London, the Lady of Lieut.-
Colonel Radclyffe.

In November last, at Tampico, one of the States of Mexico, Commodore Charles Thurlow Smith, of the Mexican Navy, late Post Captain in the British Service
(commanding the Hibernia, Undaunted, &c.)

At Coltishall, near Norwich, Mr. Thomas Holloway.

At Stamford-Hill, Captain John Bayly.

On the 13th inst. at Gunnersbury House, Middlesex,
(the seat of his uncle, Major Morison.) aged 24, Captain George Nixon Ramsay, of the 6th Enniskillen Regiment of Dragoons, only son of Major-General Ramsay, of the White Friars, Canterbury.

On Saturday, aged 81, Philip Rundell, Esq. of Ludgate Hill, London, universally esteemed and respected, he has left behind him immense wealth, obtained by industry, prudence, and frugality, equal, it is stated, to upwards of 500,000*l.*

WANTED

NEWCASTLE DISPENSARY

UPPER CONNELLOE.

A General Meeting of the Subscribers to the Dispensary is requested at the Court
Newcastle, on Monday the 5th of March hour of one o'clock in the afternoon.

ALFRED FURLON

Acting Treasurer and Secre

COKE AND TA

FOR SALE,

AT THE GAS WORKS

COKE, OF SUPERIOR QU

At the unprecedented low rate of FOUR Isushel.

TAB: FOUR PENCE per gallon, Impe
Feb

CONTINUATION OF SALE OF V
SILKS, SHAWLS, FURS, &

JOS. MARSHA

RESPECTFULLY informs the Nobility of Limerick, and its vicinity, that will close on SATURDAY 5 MARC day he will submit to Auction, Five Superfine and Refine CLOTHS and CAS comprising every shade and colour su present season, and well worth the atten keepers, as the entire must be sold, and will up in whole pieces, or cut in such length required.

Swanmore's Rooms, Limerick, Feb.

NEW SADDLE AND HAR

MANUFACTORY,

11, PATRICK-STREET, LIME

AN APPRENTICE WA

THOMAS BU

OFFERS his unfeigned thanks to the Public generally, who have so very li raged his manufacture since his arrival in assures them that it shall be his ambiti continuance of it in every branch of his he takes this opportunity of apprising th suggestion of a few respectable Gentlemen, to him a few dozen of the best English which will be found to fit horses gene limiting the purchaser to the fit of any par
—those will be got up in the neatest m superior workmen, and from having th himself, he will be able to sell them mu
English prices, and he hopes not inferior
He is obliged to request an early applica got but a few dozen over to make trial of intends to keep a general supply of the E Fitting Saddle Trees.

BULL is regularly supplied with Cutting and Gig Whips, Horse Sheet
Blankets, very low. Rollers, Sponges, Cu best Horse Brushes, and Gig or Carria best description.

* * A young Lad would be taken moderate fee.

COUNTY OF CLAR

HOUSE AND I

TO BE LET,

From the 25th of March, or First

FOR SUCH TERM AS MAY BE AGR

THE DWELLING-HOUSE, O

In the Town of Newma

OCCUPIED BY THE LATE JO

THE House is a most commodious or repair. The Offices are newly buil

there is attached a large Yard, togeth