

the judge that ded their fiscal ge made against

Foreman and
rother Perrin,
ne Commission
tedly detained be here this glad to perceive oners is small,
tude in the na-lenty of time to ill be sent be-business yet
must not be red it is the duty
to the investi-
should interfere.
fiscal business
e in reference
er to go into,
ot forthcoming

t were then adton returned to minal business.
following jury
H. Boyd, John
, Wm. Clanchy,
el Harris, Wm.
it.
dicted for having street, assaulted er life.

the female, who
in Cath orine-st.
child, which she r-closet near the ance. The infant
mily.
sentenced to 12

o, Bill Danaher, and indicted as residence. The
' a gentleman at
at Kilkee, and
, (the gaol,) in
could be said
his money like
like a Duke—

Hurley, clerk
nagher had been ear; could not residence.
, but could not
er had no fixed

At New Jersey, Mr. James William Worn, of Philadelphia, son of the late William Worn, of Dublin, to Miss Mary Orum.
At Sholapore, Wm. C. Neilson, Esq. M.D. Surgeon 20th
Regt. N.I. to Florence Matilda, daughter of the Rev. H. H.
Brereton, Assistant Chaplain H. E. I. C. S.
Lord George Paget, M.P. youngest son of the Marquess of Anglesey, to his cousin, Agnes Paget, daughter of the late Sir Arthur Paget, G.C.B.

DEATHS.

On Thursday last, at the Canal House, Mr. Charles Case-borne, Engineer to the Shannon Commission works.
At Fort Union, Adare, Joseph, son of John Christie, Esq.
At Roxborough, county Kerry, at the advanced age of 82,
James Day Eagar, Esq. formerly of Coolgarriffe, near Killarney,
Lieutenant in the 30th Regt. and subsequently in the Veterans.
He received the war medal and clasps for the Peninsular war.
At his residence, Rockshire, near Waterford, Michael Mortimer, Esq. Secretary to the Grand Jury of that city.
At Fermoy, Mrs. Mary Magnier, eldest daughter of the late
Mr. John Enright, of Glin, county Limerick.
At Ely House, county Wexford, aged 82, Robt. Hughes, Esq.
At Cahirsavine, Catherine, wife of James Barry, Esq. M.D.
At the Rectory, Drumbeg, Catherine Anne Tyrrell, aged 71, wife of the late George Tyrrell, Esq. and daughter of the late Very Rev. Richard Wensley Bond, Dean of Ross.
In Tralee, in his 81st year, Mr. Thomas Britton, pensioner.
At Newport, Mayo, Mr. Francis O'Donnell.
At Kensington Terrace, Rathmines, Mrs. Frances Digby, relict of Captain Digby, of Clonmethan, county Dublin.
At Cooldrina, Leixlip, Ellen, relict of Daniel Johnson, formerly of Baggot-street, aged 75.
At Westport, Mr. Alfred Suche, aged 21 years.
At Davistown, Frankford, Mr. William Davis, Collector of county cess for the barony of Eglisk, King's County.
At his seat, near Kelburn, Longford, Lieut.-General James Hay, C.B. Colonel of the 79th Highlanders.
The Rev. James French, parish priest of Kilrush, Wexford, brother of the late Rev. John French.
At his residence, Upper Rathmines, Mr. Abraham Tyrrell, merchant, formerly of Dublin
Shepard Jones, of Woodside, Hacketstown, Esq. aged 75.
At Brownstown House, county Meath, Dora Lydia, only child of the late John Long, Esq. aged 15 years.
At Fitzgibbon-street, Margaret, daughter of the late William Moody, Esq. of Roe House, county Londonderry.
Suddenly, Mr. M'Cready, of Sackville-street, tobacconist.
At Westland-row, Mrs. Murray, relict of John Murray, Esq.
At Leinster-raad, Rathmines, of bronchitis, Frances Anne,
daughter of E. J. Figgis.
Mary Anne, relict of the late William Fleming, Esq. Collector, county Cavan, in her 80th year.
Henry Anderson, Esq. J.P. Ballymoney.
In Bath, Gorges Lowther, Esq. formerly of Kilrue, Meath.
Mr. John Fitzpatrick, Newmarket.
The Rev. Joseph Loscombe Richards, D.D. Rector of Exeter College, Oxford.
Thomas Helt, Esq. of the Nell Gwynne tavern, many years of the Royal Gardens, Vauxhall, and treasurer to the Wednesday's concerts, Exeter-hall.
Mr. Thomas Bushell, late of the Strand.
At Soho-st. Liverpool, Mr. James P. Teebay, surgeon.
Suddenly, at Gloucester-crescent, Regent's Park, Thos. Theodore Campbell, Esq. of the Audit-office, Somerset-house.
In Paris, Francis Darwin Piesse, son of the late D. A. Piesse, Esq. of the War Office.
At Naples, in his 19th year, Alexander, youngest son of Baron Charles de Rothschild.
At sea, Major J. B. Talbot, 2d European Fusiliers.
At New Orleans, the Rev. Martin Kelly.
This morning, in Patrick-street, of convulsions from dentition, Joseph, infant son of Dr. James Darrac.
At Loughrea, Thomas Walsh, Esq. Solicitor, and coroner of the county Galway.
At Woodstock, Col. Wells, Royal Engineers.
At Goldsboro' hall, Lady Elizabeth Lascelles.
At Paris, the Abbe Lammenais.
At Hanover, Lt.-Col. Horn, formerly of 1st Dragoon Guards.

6 Two year old do. and 1 Yearling
8 Ewes, heavy in Lamb, and 2
1 Brood Mare and Foal.
1 General Working Mare and Tackling, Jaunting-car Harness
1 Rick well-saved Upland Hay.
1 Stack Barley, about 3 Barrels tatoes, Turnips, Straw and 1 Rick of Turf, from 60 to 8
Saddle, Oat Bin, and

The Interest in 10 Acres
TIER MACLA

With other Outdo
HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

Mahogany Parlour Chairs, Move
Breakfast and other Tables, Sof
Barometer, 8-day Clock, Scriptu Gilt Frames, several volumes o
and other useful works, Book-pair of Globes and Compasses,
and Pallyasses, Feather Beds
Linen, Dressing Tables, Wash
Glasses, Press Bed, White and Evening China, Ivory Handled
ling Silver, Table and Tea Spoo Meat Tub, Kitchen, and some I
many other articles too numero

The Stock are all fanciful, we condition. Sale will commence as all must be sold and settled

Terms Cash, with the usual C
JOHN CHARLES

Auctioneer, Cl

March 4.

Markets for

THE Royal Flax Improvement
I give Notice that, for the growers in the South and West obtained the consent of the B
their Buyers in the month of Ma Scutched Flax that may be br
following Towns, on the Days
Athlone, on Tuesday, 7th Ma
Limerick, at the Linen Hall,
March.

Cork, at the Corn Market, on Enniscorthy, on Saturday, 1
The Flax must be in the Scu either by Mill or Hand, and m 164lbs. each, and, as the lots sample, the whole quantity re brought forward.

The Society will give the fol
market:—

1. For the largest quantity
2. For the best quality sold.

(By order)

JAMES MACADA

Royal Flax Society's Office,

16th Feb., 1854.