

then, the First Consul assures us, established, or men of property per- forward to undisturbed possession, or uced to resume that spirit of enter- narchy had suspended. On the im- ich have been made or are now going internal situation of the country, the xpatriates with peculiar complacency. portance of many of these improve- one must be convinced; and we can- lking that the French are likely to more solid advantages from the exten- aries of instruction, from the fortua- and the digging of canals, from the ts held out to commerce, and the d to agriculture, than from the deli- ne Senate, the eloquence of the Tri- e grave decisions of the Legislative n we hear of the liberty prevails in are tempted involuntarily to inquire idences of that liberty are to be got? eady heard a great deal of the flou- tion of the French finances. In the of the Republic, the First Consul same exulting language.

hing very slightly on the situation of particularly the state of St. Domingo, adverts with peculiar delicacy, he con- w by a few reflections on the external ic Republic. This, with respect to the described as peculiarly satisfactory.— Republic is flourishing under its pre- auspices. Not a whisper of dissatis- oe heard! Liguria is penetrated with he First Consul for his protection and The subject of Switzerland might have mber of unpleasant recollections. A was sufficient, and with a common-place nte:est for their happiness, the situation is dismissed, to give way for the more respect of Prussia co-operating with the German Indemnities, of Bavaria ir vassal, of Austria commuting the do- the Imperial House in Tuscany for a a Bishopsrics.

Consul speaks with confidence of the of peace on the continent; he guaran- hopes that the maritime peace, that is England, will likewise be preserved. pe takes into view the possible case in es may not be fully carried into execu- ne event of any difficulty occurring in ulfilment of treaties, it is plainly insin- e honour of France would be implicated uch conduct. It is said, however, that government had received information had arrived in the Mediterranean to the British troops at Malta and Alex- the French government is well founded ion that Malta is to be evacuated, we ed to know what measures have been th governments to obtain the guarantee n the treaty of Amiens, or to supply eleven soldiers who have been sent home, after being tried by a Court Martial at Gibraltar, in consequence of the reluctance of his Royal Highness to have the sentence awarded against them carried into effect. The soldiers will be at the disposition of government.—When he left Gibraltar on the 31st of January the garrison were all well.

LIMERICK, MARCH 5.

Wednesday last, the Hon. Mr. Wm. Smith, and the Hon. Mr. Charles Osborne, Judges of Assizes for the Munster Circuit, arrived in Ennis from this City, and opened their respective Commissions, when the following Gentlemen were sworn on the County Clare Grand Jury:—Hon. Francis Nathaniel Burton, Foreman, Right Hon. James Fitz-Gerald, William Westby, Esq; Augustine Fitz-Gerald, (Carigoran), Esq; Hugh Dillon Maffy, Esq; Sir Joseph Percock, Bart. James Molony, Esq; Francis Macnamara, (Doolen), Esq; George Stacpoole, jun. Esq; Thomas Studdert, Esq; Henry Brady, Esq; Thos. Arthur, Esq; Laurence Comyn, Esq; Boyle Vandeleur, Esq; Thomas Gibbon Fitz-Gibbon, Esq; William N. Macnamara, Esq; Charles Mahon, Esq; Edward O'Brien, Esq; Donat O'Brien, Esq; John Hickman, Esq; Bindon Scott, Esq; and William Daxon, Esq.

On Wednesday last, John Stora died in our County Hospital. The Coroner's Inquest sat on his body, and brought in their verdict, "That he died of a shot wound, fired at him by George Stevenson, from the Box of the Mail Coach, on the night of the 11th ult. near Annahully, County Tipperary." Said Stevenson is now in custody, to abide his trial.

At a Meeting of the Common Council of this City, held yesterday at the Council Chamber, an Address was voted to his Majesty, expressive of their unfeigned joy, at the detection of the late atrocious Conspiracy in London.

BIRTH.—Last Wednesday at Newtown-Pery, the Lady of John Vereker, Esq; of a son.

DIED.—Last Saturday se'night, at his house in Gloucester-Place, London, much regretted by his respectable family and friends, William Arthur Crosbie, Esq.—A few days since, in the County of Westmeath, Major Carubers, late of the 55th foot; an officer universally regretted by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintance.—On Wednesday, in Broad-street, much lamented, Mr. Richard Murray, Revenue Officer.—On Thursday morning, at Fort-Ann, County Clare, Poole Westropp, Esq; a Gentleman universally lamented by a numerous family and acquaintance.—Same day, at Harding-Grove, Co. Limerick, deservedly lamented, Mrs. Gilderd, Mother to Mrs. Harding, of said place.

Wheat, 16s. 10d. to 18s. per stone.—Oats, 8s. 6d. Barley, (Eng.) 10s. to 11s.—Common, 6d. to 7d.—Butter, 100s. 98s. 94s. per cwt.

The Members of the Farming Society are requested to meet at the Mercantile Coffee House, Limerick, at One o'Clock on Thursday next. 4th March, 1803. M. MONSELL, Sec.

The Public are respectfully informed, that there will be a...

each Mare, and a Crown. before service, as I am ac March 5, 1803

THE Partnership which was formed in the Timber Trade, in the County of Kerry, between John Ryan and Patrick Sherin, is hereby dissolved, the Trade to be carried on in the future by the said John Ryan and Patrick Sherin, at their Concerns in the Woods of Cloverfield, near the Town of John Ryan and Co. Limerick.

The Established Jeweller and Watchmaker, No. 15, P...

WILLIAM FITZ-G... Public, that he has been in England, an extensive assessor in his line, of the new Diamond and Pearl work, Gold and Silver Watches, Ivory and Camwood Hairs, Knives and Forks, all at reduced prices for ready price asked.

N. B.—He allows in value for old Gold, Silver...

THOMAS Nursery and Seedsmen.

GRATEFUL for the assistance since his commencement leave to inform his friends that he has lately received from the Government of Garden Seeds, to improve Land, the good depended on, also a choice of Trees, Vines, Roses, and expects per the Minerva, uncommon Roses and other Limerick.

PATRICK REILLY Conyers, Esq; has just arrived in Cork, all sorts of Seeds, of the most elegant bought under the inspection of a Gardener near London, genuine, having them at a low price, and sell on more moderate terms than elsewhere, he flatters himself that neighbouring gentlemen of good custom will find it their interest to be made at said Reilly's Conyers.

RAMSAY, Hair No. 4, Bridge-street.

Respectfully informs the Public of this City, that he has just arrived in Dublin, with a well chosen assortment of Perfume and Hair Powder, as usual, and to any manufactured in the Kingdom by the pot or by the comb, the best of the following:—Rohma's Tooth Powder; Essence of Pearl, an elegant genuine, all on the most reasonable terms possible.—Has also Furnish...

Theatre Roy